

EXPLOSION VICTIM NEAR DEATH

108 Dead, 500 Injured In Storm

VILLAGES ARE COMPLETELY WIPED OUT

Parts of Seven Southeastern Swept by Tornado

PATH IS 1,000 MILES LONG

Women, Children Make up Large Portion of Dead

(BULLETIN)
ATLANTA, Ga. — (Associated Press)—Reports of additional deaths from tornadoes in Richland and Sumter-cos in South Carolina today swelled the life toll to 108 in the storms that struck southeastern states yesterday.

ATLANTA, Ga. — (Associated Press)—With ninety-five persons known to be dead, more than a score missing, approximately 500 injured, some perhaps fatally, the southeast set about today to relieve regions stricken yesterday and Tuesday by the worst high tension storms in its history.

Tornadoes, descending with devastating violence upon widely separated sections, caused damage estimated at $10,000,000 in the seven states—South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina, Virginia, Louisiana and Arkansas. The last two were the first to suffer, being in the area in which the disturbance originated Tuesday.

Early today incomplete reports delayed by crippled wire facilities, distributed the total list of dead as follows:

South Carolina 66; Georgia 13; Alabama 11; North Carolina 3; Louisiana 1; Arkansas 1.

With many points in the path of the storm yet completely isolated, reports of additional casualties were anticipated hourly.

RELIEF WORK
Relief work is proceeding rapidly under the supervision of the American Red Cross, assisted by numerous local fraternal and civic organizations, municipal and county government and individuals. Hundreds of the more fortunate survivors of the storms have thrown open their homes to the sufferers, while in virtually every locality in the affected districts temporary kitchens have been set up to dispense food to the hungry.

A picture of desolation of the wreckage was left in the wake of the storms, which traversed a path roughly estimated at more than a thousand miles long.

GENERAL DESTRUCTION
Dead and injured and many of those unhurt were picked up by the fierce winds and hurled hundreds of feet. Miles of telephone and telegraph lines were torn down and hundreds of dwellings and other buildings were ripped from their foundations and demolished, trees were uprooted and numbers of livestock were killed, while bridges were washed away and roads flooded in many sections by torrential rains which accompanied the storm.

Women and children make up a large part of the known dead.

Entire communities were destroyed in some sections and there was no trace in the storm's path which traveled wholly unscathed. In South Carolina where the tornadoes were most disastrous, Horrell Hill, 12 miles from Columbia, was wrecked, 17 being killed and numbers of others more or less seriously hurt.

Among the dead were four school boys who with 73 other pupils were buried beneath the wreckage of the school house.

Eight persons, five of them children, were killed and more than a dozen injured when they were trapped in their crashing houses at a point on the Riverside Mill where near there, while numbers of dwellings in the city proper were demolished.

VILLAGE PATROLED
Early today fifty members of the American Legion post, armed with rifles, were patrolling the stricken mill village area. Property damaged in that section alone is placed at $1,500,000.

In Florence, fifteen persons met death, fifty were injured and 20 houses were destroyed by the storm which cut a path 300 yards wide to the Atlantic coast, 20 miles away.

An undetermined number of negroes are reported missing.

Other fatalities were 12 in Sumter-cos, six in Lee-co, six in Lexington, one in Lexington-co and one in Columbus. Many of the dead and injured are negroes.

The village of Hicklen, Ga., near Augusta, virtually was wiped from the map, when the storm struck there, killing the postmaster, injuring many others and destroying nearly every building.

A Chippley, near Columbus, nine persons were killed, thirty injured and undetermined property damage caused. Due to disrupted wire facilities there, as in many sections of Georgia, only the barest details could be obtained.

DON'T USE COAL OIL---MACK

Coal oil explosion warning was issued Thursday by Fire Chief John Mack as the aftermath of three tragedies enacted here within one week, in which two lives paid the forfeit and a third victim hovers near death at Lima City hospital. Mack's warning follows:

"Death and destruction go hand in hand with the use of coal oil in lighting fires in homes. Kerosene oil is as dangerous as gasoline. Stay away from it. Don't use it around fires. Tragic deaths here in one week are sufficient warnings.

"Pouring coal oil on smoldering fires is courting death. Kerosene vapors are deadly and they readily mix with fumes from smoldering fires, causing explosions. Life toll in Lima has been very heavy from this one cause. Play safe. Take a little extra time in lighting fires. Don't use coal oil, gasoline or other explosives.

"Ten lives have paid the forfeit in Lima in coal oil explosions in recent years. Mrs. Birdie Hillery died Saturday and left four motherless children to mourn her. H. W. Gaves left a widow and four-year-old daughter, and Mrs. Gerald Gilroy hovers near death while a husband prays for the life of his wife and the mother of his 18 months old infant.

"Fatalities bring realizations of danger. Coal oil is as dangerous as dynamite. Explosions are terrific and victims are invariably burned alive or else die within a few hours after the explosions as flames and burning oil cover their bodies. Three tragedies here tell the story of coal oil dangers. Let's save lives. Let's be careful. Take a little time in lighting fires. Above everything else—don't use coal oil."

THIRD COAL OIL BLAST IN WEEK BURNS WOMAN

Doctor Operated On Fifty Times

BALTIMORE — (Associated Press) — Dr. Frederick H. Baetjer, professor of roentgenology at Johns Hopkins medical school, and distinguished for his work with the X-Ray submitted Tuesday to his fifteenth operation to remove infections caused by burns from the powerful ray, it was learned last night.

Four of Dr. Baetjer's fingers were amputated due to burns, about fifteen years ago, and several years later infection developed. The hand was saved by grafting skin from the abdomen but the old infection has necessitated operations at intervals since that time.

Care in Starting Coal Fires Urged by Authorities

Mrs. Helen Gilroy, 19, 611 E. Vine-st, lies at Lima City hospital, probably fatally burned. — Lima's third victim within one week of coal oil explosions. Her legs are horribly burned, face scorched and hair singed. Hospital authorities fear for her recovery.

Harold C. Gilroy, a brother-in-law, sustained painful face and hand burns in smothering the flames which enveloped the body of the woman after the kerosene can exploded in her hands.

Flames from the explosion spread to lace curtains in the room and licked up the wall. Fire and smoke filled rooms threatened the life of Mrs. Gilroy's 18-month-old child in a crib in an adjoining room. Neighbors heard the explosion and rescued the infant while Gilroy worked to save the life of his sister-in-law. The Gilroy explosion was similar to those which took the lives of Mrs. Birdie Hillery, 8, Main-st and H. W. Gaves, 528 Shawnee-st. Mrs. Gilroy was pouring coal oil into a can in a dining room fire when gas from the fire ignited with fumes from the oil and the explosion followed.

Gerald E. Gilroy, her husband, had started for work at the locomotive works. Mrs. Gilroy, her infant, and Harold C. Gilroy, the brother-in-law were in the room.

OIL EXPLODES
The woman took a one-gallon coal oil can and walked to the dining room stove. She attempted to pour oil thru the spout onto the coal and an explosion of terrific force followed. Mrs. Gilroy's screams attracted Harold Gilroy who rushed to her aid with a heavy bed comforter and wrapped it around the body of the woman as flames burned the clothing from the lower portion of her body and spread to her face.

The flames were horribly burned and the woman's face was blistered and hair was singed from her head. That a coroner worn by Mrs. Gilroy deflected the flames and prevented instantaneous death, is the belief of firemen.

Force of the explosion was heard across the street. Mrs. Joseph Reynolds heard the report and saw smoke pouring from the house. She rushed into the house and witnessed the tragedy. Other neighbors, attracted by the explosion, entered the house and the infant was removed to the Sawyer home on E. Vine-st.

Phenomenal extinguished the flames which had spread to the walls of the house. Mrs. Gilroy was on the front porch when they arrived and a few moments later was taken to City hospital where she has a fighting chance to live.

Tragedy of the Gilroy home is Lima's third within one week. Mrs. Birdie Hillery, 1125 S. Main-st, and H. W. Gaves, 528 Shawnee-st, are two witnesses of tragedies enacted last Friday and Monday.

Mrs. Hillery lay in agony and died the following day at City hospital. Gaves lived only five hours after he refused aid of his wife who rushed to his side when his body was enveloped in flames.

SHOT BY BANDIT

Business Man Attacked and Robbed at Delaware

DELAWARE, Ohio — (Associated Press)—J. T. Driver, 50, business man, is near death here today, hospital officials reported, due to being shot thru the abdomen last midnight by a highwayman who robbed him of $40 in cash and a diamond stick pin. Blood transfusion was resorted to by surgeons early today in an effort to save Driver's life.

Police have no clue as to the whereabouts of the highwayman who made his escape in an automobile after robbing Driver near the post-office.

He was held for Youngstown police.

DEATH THREAT IN MYSTERY CALL

"I am Going to Kill You." Voice on Telephone Says

LEWIS GRANGER THREATENED

May be Former Assailant, Marked Man Tells Police

Murder threat hurled at Lewis Granger, 593 S. Pine-st, late Wednesday night by an unknown person speaking over a telephone, sent Lima police out Thursday on a city wide search to trace the call and clear up the mystery.

Granger reported he was called from his bed by the ringing of the telephone. A party inquired over the wire, "Is this Lewis Granger?" to which Granger replied in the affirmative and the threat was hurled.

"I am going to kill you. Yes, I am going to shoot you." Three times the threat echoed thru the receiver. Granger said he stood dumbfounded for a second and when he spoke into the telephone the receiver on the other end was hung up.

Granger was the victim of a highwayman on April 8 and was left lying unconscious on the front porch of his home after being struck down from behind by an unknown assailant armed with a blackjack, who robbed him of $85.

FORMER ASSAILANT
He told police he believes the man in the $85 pickup and the one who hurled death threats are the same person. Granger says he knows of no parties other than the one who attacked him at his home.

"The voice sounded like the voice of a foreigner," Granger said. "There was no mistake in telephone numbers because the party who called me from my bed asked if Lewis Granger was speaking and when I replied he threatened my life."

"I have no enemies that I know of. On April 8 I was called to the front porch by a rap on the front door. When I looked out someone hit me on the head and robbed me of $85. I didn't get to see the thief and I don't know whether he is the same one who called me over the telephone Wednesday night and threatened my life."

Police are investigating every angle of the two mysterious incidents in Granger's life. They are working on the robbery theory and the murder theory, paying "help" that the same person is responsible for both.

Place of where the call was made has been located, it is claimed, and the elimination process of the users Wednesday night of the telephone police intimate that arrests will follow.

EXCESSIVE DRINKING IS DIVORCE ACTION CHARGE

Prohibition may prohibit for some, but it had no effect on the bitulous habits of Harry B. Deffenbaugh, 126 Euclid-av, according to allegations contained in a petition for divorce filed in common pleas court by Mrs. Ellen Charley Deffenbaugh.

She accuses her mate of habitual drunkenness particularly in the past three years. Prior to that time liquor did not make him so wild, she says.

Her petition tells of threats to kill made by the defendant, and of cursing and abuse, alleged to have been hurled at her.

Because of these conditions, the plaintiff declares she had to leave home. Mullen, in a petition filed Thursday, charges that Mrs. Besie Mullen, of 602 N. Main-st, seamstress, left him three years ago and has not returned. She refuses to live with him, he declares.

The two have one child, Leonard, 15.

REALTY AGENTS NAMED IN BUILDING ADDITION SUIT

Suit to obtain a deed to property purchased in 1919 in Addison-pl addition was filed in common pleas court Thursday by Howard and Sarah Heisel, Robbers, against Joe and Hettie Eitel, of Cincinnati.

Heisel claims that he bought a lot from the defendants in 1919, and has finished paying for it. He asserts that the defendants will not give him a deed.

OFFICIAL COUNT SHOWS CHANGE

Coolidge Gains and Cox Loses in Final Allen-co Returns

Slight gains and losses were recorded Thursday in the official count of the Allen-co primary, certified to Thad H. Brown, secretary of state.

Coolidge advanced from 1,291 to 1,437; Johnson dropped from 162 to 161, in the Republican primary. James M. Cox also lost on the official count, slipping from 1,006 to 999.

William Gibbs McAdoo profited by his losses, climbing from 430 to 438. Total vote for Dan H. Kirwan and James Marker, Democratic district delegates, is Kirwan, 765; Marker, 670; alternates, Galen Baker, 631; Emma Kloebe, 573.

John E. Galvin, Lima, Coolidge district delegate, improved his standing on the official tabulation, going from 1032 to 1037. Hearing his running mate, climbed from 850, reported Wednesday, to 923. Mel C. Gabriel and W. F. Johnson, Republican alternates in the fourth district, tied with a count of 884 each.

Official count shows William Grant Webster, Republican perpetual candidate for vice-president, and George L. Berry, Democrat, almost negotiated an even vote. Webster received 743, and Berry 729.

The combined vote of Cox and McAdoo was 1437; total vote on the G. O. P. ticket, as shown by combined vote to Coolidge and Johnson, was 1589.

Total in bridge bonds showed, for 1927, against 2,128.

MATERIAL SWITCH IS CONSIDERED

Would Get Work Started and Save Big Sum, Backers Say

ASPHALT, BRICK FAVORED

Asphalt Block Petition May Begin to Crumble Soon

Indications Thursday were that a compromise may be effected on the proposed Main-st paving which will bring all factions together quickly and result in an early start on the work as well as a saving of some $34,000 on the work.

If this compromise is brought about it will mean that the recommendation of City Manager Bingham for oil asphalt with granite block gutters and between car tracks will go into the discard. The recommendation has not been a popular one at any time and is declared to be the reason some of the property owners signed the petition for asphalt block.

Under the compromise as discussed Thursday, asphalt block, a high priced paving, would suffer the same fate as the combination recommended by Bingham. This is the material the property owners, said to be a majority, favored.

PETITION MAY CRUMBLE
There was a strong possibility that the asphalt block petition would begin to crumble Thursday and that enough property owners would withdraw in the interest of a compromise to make up a strong majority on the side of the compromise.

Trinidad street asphalt, recognized as the highest type of asphalt, and 4-inch vitrified paving brick would be the compromise materials as discussed Thursday. This combination in the highest standard of construction represents the cheapest quotation among the high class paving materials included in the Main-st bids.

The low bid on asphalt block was $194,245. This quotation is $34,000 higher than Trinidad asphalt and brick gutters and between the car tracks, or a difference of about $6.89 per front foot on the street.

Asphalt block, it is argued, is not as heavy a paving material as the lake asphalt strips would be if a one-inch binder and two-inch top of the lake asphalt are used. It is on this thickness of material that the above comparison is made by those working for a compromise.

THREATS ARE HEARD
Threats were heard Thursday on the part of some property owners that an injunction will be sought to prevent the adoption of the combination recommended by the city manager if this plan is pushed since, the property owners contend, the manager's plan would combine one of the highest priced materials obtainable—granite block—with a lower priced material—oil asphalt. They argue that the material between the car tracks and in the gutters does not get the hard wear that in the main traffic spaces do, hence why place the highest priced paving there and one of the lower priced where the real wear comes.

The combination of lake asphalt and brick would be approximately $18,000 cheaper than the combination of oil asphalt and granite block. It is probable that the compromise now under way can be worked out and the matter in shape for awarding the contract next Monday.

CHIEF OF WORLD FLIGHT MISSING

Commander Martin May be Lost at Sea off Alaska

CORDOVA, Alaska — (Associated Press)—No word had been received at 2:25 a. m. today at this station, which is in constant wireless communication with the North Pacific region, concerning the fate of Major Frederick L. Martin.

SEATTLE, Wash. — (Associated Press)—Radio advices received at 5 a. m. today from the Alaskan peninsula stated no trace has been found of Major Frederick L. Martin in the flag plane Seattle which left Chignik yesterday for Dutch Harbor, Unalakleet Island. Fishing boats are searching for the missing plane.

FALSE PASS, Unimak Island — (BY WIRELESS TO ASSOCIATED PRESS)—VIA BREMERITON, WASH.—Fears are expressed here for the safety of Major Frederick L. Martin, commanding a United States army air squadron encircling the globe, who left Chignik, Alaska, at 11:10 a. m. yesterday for Dutch Harbor, Unalakleet Island, and who was not reported passing any points up to 6 o'clock last night.

Residents at the small cannery station here, located on the southeastern point of Unimak Island, near Hatan Bay, have just passed thru the worst few days ever known for this period of the year.

The North Pacific ocean has been lashed by terrific gales, the wind frequently reaching a velocity of 100 miles an hour. The air at the wireless station has been filled all day with snow blown from the mountainsides and neighboring peaks.

Even the seagulls making their home here did not try to fly today, seeking sheltered nooks and staying out of the cold wind. The temperature has ranged from 60 to 24 degrees above zero during the storm.

If Major Martin succeeded in reaching Dutch Harbor today he will be fully qualified for any hard work that might arise later, according to opinion expressed by local residents.

CHARGES AGAINST JUSTICE BORNE OUT

COLUMBUS — The report of Assistant Attorney General H. H. Griswold covering his investigation of justices and mayors courts in Lucas-co, made public today bears out the charges and statements made by the attorney general, Judge Kilbitt of Toledo and others who held that prohibition enforcement had become a commercialized activity rather than a dispensation of justice.

Violators of the law were looked upon not as offenders against the dignity of the state, but merely as sources of revenue, to be zealously guarded," Griswold avers, citing testimony to the effect that constables, marshals and deputies from the various courts indulged in a "sprited contest" with respect to their so-called rights in the matter of "knocking off" their victims.

HE DROVE AWAY

A. F. Bush, 323 N. Elizabeth-st, reported his Ford coupe to the wrong man Wednesday night. A stranger giving his name as Ray Tanner and his home as Ada, was the renter, and when he failed to return by Thursday morning, Bush informed police.

PLAY STAGED BY
50 TOWNSHistoric Story of North Carolina
Told by 1,000 Actors

COSTUMES COST $50,000

People of Twelve Counties Represented in Cast

LEWISTON, N. C., (United Press)—Great groups of actors of national and state fame, celebrating the hundredth anniversary of the state's independence, presented here recently the history of half of a state was depicted in a series of tableaux, in which 1,000 people took part.

A stage, 100 feet wide, was erected in a large warehouse, a barn-like structure occupying half of a city block. A small area of decoration converted the warehouse into a theatre. Two thousand people were seated, other thousand stood.

Fifty towns in twelve counties were represented in the cast. There were two acts. Daughters of the American Revolution, daughters of the Confederacy, sons of other organizations and county and town groups competed in the undertaking. The program was given the title of "North Carolina in Action."

1 HOUR REQUIRED

When the time arrived for the actors to assemble here, it was raining all over the territory. Hundreds of automobiles were used to convey them. Some traveled 100 miles, not a person was missing when the roll was called. The curtain was only five minutes late. The performance required four hours, and a half. A tobacco factory across the street from the theatre was used as dressing quarters. When the red-robed brass band, which served as an orchestra, struck up the preliminary overture rain was falling in torrents.

General George Washington, Baron de Graeffe, Vice President King, Chief "Hancock," Governor Cassell and Holmes, and hundreds of colonial dames, continental blues-and-outs, British grenadiers, Confederate cavaliers and infantrymen, Southern planters, allegorical characters, and others, had to cross the street on a three-plank trestle because the rain was so heavy that streets were flooded.

The twelve acts were in chronological sequence. Wayne County's Company presented the departure of Captain Slocum and colonial soldiers for Moore's creek, where a battle was fought between the colonists and British and Tories. Tobacco people provided a precise replica of a banquet in George Washington's honor. Joseph Pennington impersonated the President. Kinston county leaders danced the minuet in costume.

Jones County's company won a silver loving cup with a stirring military scene of Civil War days. Infantry troops in an industrial scene and the introduction of scores of symbolic characters and world war figures in a tableau concluded the performance.

It was estimated that $50,000 was expended on costumes. Various patriotic societies and individuals financed the program.

HARRY K. THAW ON

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Harry K. Thaw, who has come to Pittsburgh to visit his mother, never expects to return to the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases. He left here last night on permission of the court to go away and stay away until the court demands his presence back here.

Thaw has taken practically all of his belongings away from Kirkbride. A week ago when he was declared sane by a jury here, he shipped all of his books and other articles to Pittsburgh, declaring at the time that he would not need them here any more.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cain, of 102 1/2 S. Elizabeth-st., announce the birth of a daughter Sunday at city hospital. The little one has been named Miriam Elaine.

NEWARK, Ohio (Associated Press)—Twenty-five Baltimore and Ohio freight cars piled up at Pataskala near here at 5 o'clock this morning. The watchman's shanty at the Pataskala crossing was demolished and freight from the cars thrown about the tracks.

Baltimore and Ohio tracks in Pataskala were badly torn up, but no one was injured in the pile up. Both the Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania wrecking crews are busy cleaning up the wreckage.

Both Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio trains between Newark and Columbus are being detoured via Mt. Vernon.

ROOSEVELT CHOSEN AS
SMITH CAMPAIGN PILOT

NEW YORK — The unity of the New York Democratic organization in its boom for Governor Alfred E. Smith for president is demonstrated by Tammany's cordial reception of the appointment of Franklin D. Roosevelt to steer Governor Smith's campaign for the Democratic nomination.

Roosevelt was Democratic candidate for vice president at the last election and for a time was active against the Tammany clique. He has been a close friend of the governor since 1911, when the latter was majority leader in the state legislature.

Roosevelt stated his committee would be composed entirely of persons who knew the governor as he knows him, even possibly including persons who are not Democrats, but realize the governor's qualifications.

1928 G. O. P. MEET
IS SOUGHTCleveland Plans Fight for National Convention

ADVANTAGES POINTED OUT

Declared Logical Point for Political Gatherings

CLEVELAND — (United Press)—Cleveland already has begun planning to bring the 1928 Republican convention to the fifth city, according to James J. E. Jappe, secretary of the Cleveland Convention Committee.

Cleveland is going to provide so well for the comfort and entertainment of the delegates and visitors to the Republican convention here in June that they will want to come back, Jappe said.

The strategic position of Cleveland makes it a fine convention city, Jappe pointed out. More than one-half of the population of the United States lives within 500 miles of this city. Seven railroads from the East West and South, meeting here, make it a great railroad center. Big lake steamers connect the city by water routes with all the important ports of the Great Lakes.

Cleveland itself is admirably laid out for a convention city, Jappe said. Imagine the dot on the map for Cleveland as the business district—about a square mile. Within this "dot" is the Public Auditorium, where the convention will be held, most of the hotels and theatres and principal business houses. Extending out in a radius of eight miles are the residential districts.

Cleveland has nineteen hotels, a dozen theatres and a score or more movie theatres, twenty parks, a Museum of Art, Museum of Natural History and a Zoological Gardens.

Cleveland's finest bathing beach is located at Edgewater Park, which has 6,000 feet lake frontage. Luna Park and Euclid Beach Park compare favorably with Coney Island in their attractions.

The Cleveland American League ball team will be playing at home all during the convention. On June 19, the opening day of the convention, by a coincidence, the Washington Senators will be the opponents of the Indians. Boston opens a four days' series on June 11 and the New York Yankees on June 15.

Mrs. Nettie M. Clapp, former Ohio State Representative, is the only woman on the G. O. P. convention committee of fourteen. She is chairman of the Women's committee.

"Our aim will be to find out what the visiting women want and then see that they get it," Mrs. Clapp told the United Press.

"Hundreds of daily hostesses will take care of all the hotels, so that no matter where the women may be there will be someone looking after their comfort and entertainment," she said.

TEACHER EXPECTED TO TELL BARING CASE STORY

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — Miss Mildred Beam, school teacher, is expected to tell the story of her friendship with Clarence O. Baring, now awaiting trial charged with attempting to murder his wife by putting poison and disease germs in her food. Baring emphasized that no suspicion was attached to her.

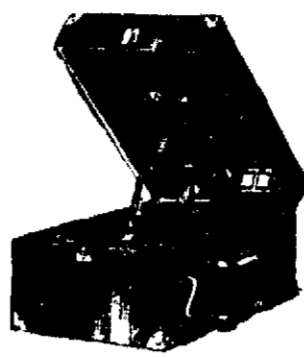

The friendship between Miss Beam and Baring covers a period of seven years, the authorities said. It started in the Grand Central Station when they collided in an effort to get thru the same door. Thereafter, it was said, they met frequently on the train and on several occasions the girl was a guest at the Baring home.

The district attorney announced yesterday the seizure of a golf bag checked by Baring at Grand Central depot last Friday. In a pocket of the bag, he said, was found a vial of bicarbonate of mercury tablets.

MODERN TIMESAnother Tell-Tale Mark Of A Woman's Age Disappears As
Jeweler "Does His Stuff"

Time was when a man could estimate within a span of ten years or so, the age of any woman, but that day is fast disappearing. Not many years ago a man looked at the wedding ring a woman wore. The style indicated that she was married about a certain time, and then by assuming that she was a certain age at the time of her marriage, he could estimate her age.

Not now, though. At the present time women of all ages are going to the jeweler to have their rings made over, changed to the style now in vogue, and mother may be wearing the same style wedding ring that daughter wears.

DEFICIENCIES IN FLEET REPORTED

J. S. Fighting Ships Declared in Bad Condition

EMBARRASSED BY LOW SPEED

Vessels Not in Proper Repair, Commander Says

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Serious deficiencies in the United States fighting fleet, mobilized in southern waters last week, were reported by Admiral Robert E. Coontz, commander-in-chief, in his official account to the navy department of what was demonstrated during the maneuvers. Admiral Coontz said in his report, extracts from which were obtained yesterday at the navy department, that the fleet was seriously embarrassed by the low speed of the auxiliary ships; that ships generally had not been kept "properly repaired" because of lack of appropriations; that thirteen of the older ships needed modernization of machinery, elevation of turret guns and equipment with anti-aircraft defenses; and that submarine operations were the worst of all combatant ships taking part in the maneuvers.

CONDITION OF SUBS

All submarines are so deficient in speed as to be of small use for fleet work except by accident of position. Admiral Coontz reported, considering the poor material, the work of the personnel and the condition of the personnel, that the submarines in many cases most admirable and even heroic.

Commenting upon the deficiencies in the fleet as to various types of craft, Admiral Coontz pointed out that there had been present with the fleet at Culebra at the time of the maneuvers, no light cruisers, store ships, tugs, sea planes, colliers, repair ships, destroyer tenders, lighter than aircraft or a number of other types of auxiliary vessels.

The report urged that the building program to complete aircraft carriers, destroyers and submarine tenders and to construct light cruisers, "modern submarines," destroyers, squadron leaders and fleet heavier than air machines be pressed.

REDISCOUNT RATE CUT BY NEW YORK RESERVE BANK

WASHINGTON — Reduction of the rediscount rate by the New York Reserve Bank yesterday from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent is expected at the treasury to be followed by similar action by the reserve banks at Boston and Philadelphia.

It developed today that the reduction by the New York bank with its subsequent approval by the reserve board was a proposition originating entirely with the bank itself. Members of the reserve board, while expressing no opposition, felt it would accomplish little change in the general economic situation.

Secretary Mellon, among others, believes the reduction will do little to stimulate new business inasmuch as he regards the general money supply as adequate and the present rates easy.

BOOTLEGGERS WARNED BY "THREE GUN" PARSON

JOLIET, Ill. — Rev. Henry E. Rompel, "three gun" parson, today served notice on bootleggers within a radius of ten miles of Joliet that he would keep on raiding them until the liquor traffic was stopped.

Last night at the head of a large number of men and women and a few federal dry agents, Ray Rompel raided a half dozen roadhouses near the city.

Thirty one arrests were made and a large quantity of liquor confiscated.

PLAY STAGED BY 50 TOWNS

Historic Story of North Carolina Told by 1,000 Actors

COSTUMES COST $50,000

People of Twelve Counties Represented in Cast

ELKTON, N. C. (United Press)—Great-grandchildren of colonial and ante-bellum celebrities impersonated them in a remarkable pageant presented here recently. The history of half a State was depicted in a series of tableaux, in which 1,000 people took part.

A stage 100 feet wide was erected in a tobacco warehouse, a barn-like structure occupying half of a city block. A small army of operators converted the warehouse into a theatre. Five thousand people were seated, other thousands stood. Fifty towns in twelve counties were represented in the cast. Then were the actors. Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the Confederacy, sons of other organizations and county and town officials cooperated in the undertaking. The pageant was given the title of "Eastern Carolina in Action."

1 HOUR REQUIRED
When the time arrived for the actors to assemble here it was raining all over the territory. Hundreds of automobiles were used to convey them. Some traveled 100 miles not a person was missing when the roll was called. The curtain was only five minutes late. The performance required four hours and a half. A tobacco factory across the street from the theatre was used as dressing quarters. When the red-robed brass band, which served as an orchestra, struck up the preliminary overture rain was falling in torrents. General George Washington, Baron de Graffenreid, Vice President Kling, Chief Hancock, Governor Caswell and Holmes, and hundreds of colonial dames, continental blue-and-buffs, British grandfathers, Confederate cavaliers and minutemen, Southern planters, allegorical characters, and others had to cross the street on a three-plank trestle because the rain was so heavy that streets were flooded.

The twelve acts were in chronological sequence. Wayne County's Company presented the departure of Captain Bloom and colonial soldiers for Moore's creek, where they had been fought between the colonists and British and Tories. Tarboro people provided a precise replica of a banquet in George Washington's honor. Joseph Pennington impersonated the President. Kingston society leaders danced the minuet in costume. Jones County's company won a silver loving cup with a stirring military scene of Civil War days. Halifax's troupe in an industrial scene and the introduction of scores of allegorical characters and world war figures in a tableau concluded the performance. It was estimated that $50,000 was expended on costumes. Various patriotic societies and individuals financed the pageant.

HARRY K. THAW ON VISIT TO PITTSBURGH

PHILADELPHIA — Harry K. Thaw, who has gone to Pittsburgh to visit his mother never expects to return to the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases. He left here last night on permission of the court, to go away and stay away until the court demands his presence back here.

Thaw has taken practically all of his belongings away from Killebrew's. A week ago when he was declared sane by a jury here, he shipped all of his books and other articles to Pittsburgh, declaring at the time that he would not need them here any more.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cain, of 103 1-2 S. Elizabeth-st., announce the birth of a daughter Sunday at City hospital. The little one has been named Miriam Elaine.

TRAIN IS WRECKED

25 B. & O. Freight Cars Are Piled up at Pataskala

NEWARK, Ohio (Associated Press)—Twenty-five Baltimore and Ohio freight cars piled up at Pataskala near here at 5 o'clock this morning. The watchman's shanty in the Pataskala crossing was demolished and freight from the cars thrown about the tracks.

Baltimore and Ohio tracks in Pataskala were badly torn up but no one was injured in the pile up. Both the Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania wrecking crews are busy cleaning out the wreckage.

Both Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio trains between Newark and Columbus are being detoured via Mt. Vernon.

ROOSEVELT CHOSEN AS SMITH CAMPAIGN PILOT

NEW YORK — The unity of the New York Democratic organization in its boom for Governor Alfred E. Smith for president is demonstrated by Tammany's cordial reception of the appointment of Franklin D. Roosevelt to steer Governor Smith's campaign for the Democratic nomination.

Roosevelt was Democratic candidate for vice president at the last election and for a time was active against the Tammany clique. He has been a close friend of the governor since 1911, when the latter was majority leader in the state legislature.

Roosevelt stated his committee would be composed entirely of persons who knew the governor as he knows him, even possibly including persons who are not Democrats, but realize the governor's qualifications.

1928 G. O. P. MEET IS SOUGHT

Cleveland Plans Fight for National Convention

ADVANTAGES POINTED OUT

Declared Logical Point for Political Gatherings

CLEVELAND — (United Press)—Cleveland already has begun planning to bring the 1928 Republican convention to the fifth city, according to James J. E. Jappe, secretary of the Cleveland Convention Committee.

Cleveland is going to provide so well for the comfort and entertainment of the delegates and visitors to the Republican convention here in June that they will want to come back, Jappe said.

The strategic position of Cleveland makes it a fine convention city, Jappe pointed out. More than one-half of the population of the United States lives within 500 miles of this city. Seven railroads from the East, West and South, meeting here, make it a great railroad center. Big lake steamers connect the city by water routes with all the important ports on the Great Lakes.

Cleveland itself is admirably laid out for a convention city, Jappe said. Imagine the dot on the map for Cleveland as the business district—about a square mile. Within this "dot" is the Public Auditorium, where the convention will be held, most all of the hotels and theatres and principal business houses. Extending out in a radius of eight miles are the residential districts.

Cleveland has nineteen hotels, a dozen theatres and a score or more movie theatres, twenty parks, a Museum of Art, Museum of Natural History and a Zoological Gardens. Cleveland's finest bathing beach is located at Edgewater Park, which has 6,000 feet lake frontage. Linn Park and Euclid Beach Park combine favorably with Coney Island in their attractions.

The Cleveland American League ball team will be playing at home all during the convention. On June 19, the opening day of the convention, by a coincidence, the Washington Senators will be the opponents of the Indians. Boston opens a four days' series on June 11 and the New York Yankees on June 15.

Mrs. Nettie M. Clapp, former Ohio State Representative, is the only woman on the G. O. P. convention committee of fourteen. She is chairman of the Women's committee.

"Our aim will be to find out what the visiting women want and then see that they get it," Mrs. Clapp told the United Press.

"Hundreds of daily hostesses will take care of all the hotels, so that no matter where the women may be there will be someone looking after their comfort and entertainment," she said.

TEACHER EXPECTED TO TELL BARING CASE STORY

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — Miss Mildred Beam, school teacher, is expected by District Attorney Rowland to appear voluntarily at his office within the next few days to tell the story of her friendship with Clarence O. Baring, now awaiting trial charged with attempting to murder his wife by putting poison and disease germs in her food. Rowland emphasized that no suspicion was attached to her.

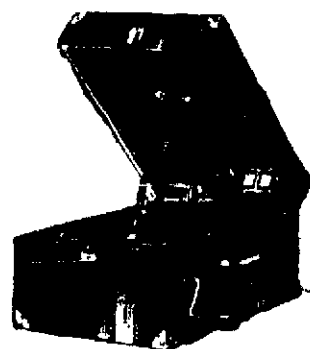

The friendship between Miss Beam and Baring covers a period of seven years, the authorities said. It started in the Grand Central Station when they collided in an effort to get through the same door. Thereafter, it was said, they met frequently on the train and on several occasions the girl was a guest at the Baring home.

The district attorney announced yesterday the seizure of a gold bag checked by Baring at Grand Central depot last Friday. In a pocket of the bag, he said, was found a vial of bichloride of mercury tablets.

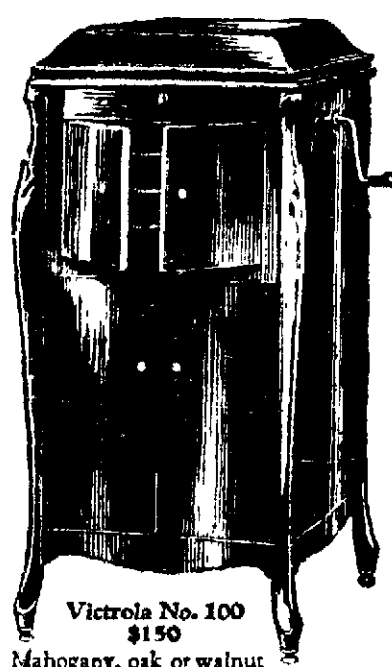

Rachmaninoff, Stokowski and the Philadelphia Orchestra!

Genius, art and craftsmanship have again combined to produce Victor Records which must rank as a noteworthy achievement in the history of music.

Rachmaninoff at the piano plays his own composition accompanied by the Philadelphia Orchestra under the direction of Stokowski, and Victor recording has made imperishable this masterpiece of living genius. The piano, at Rachmaninoff's touch, sings as it has never sung through any reproducing instrument—in the rare moments which are unaccompanied or against the full flood of Stokowski's faultless orchestra. We offer these records to the public with a satisfaction which will be shared by every lover of great music and as evidence of what the Victrola alone can give you.

WEDDING RINGS ALTERED TO FIT MODERN TIMES

Another Tell-Tale Mark Of A Woman's Age Disappears As Jeweler "Does His Stuff"

Time was when a man could estimate within a span of ten years or so, the age of any woman, but that day is fast disappearing. Not many years ago a man looked at the wedding ring a woman wore. The style indicated that she was married about a certain time, and then by assuming that she was a certain age at the time of her marriage, he could estimate her age.

Not now, though. At the present time women of all ages are going to the jeweler to have their rings made over, changed to the style now in vogue, and neither may be wearing the same style wedding ring that daughter wears.

DEFICIENCIES IN FLEET REPORTED

J. S. Fighting Ships Declared in Bad Condition

EMBARRASSED BY LOW SPEED

Vessels Not in Proper Repair, Commander Says

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Serious deficiencies in the United States fighting fleet, mobilized in southern waters last winter, were reported by Admiral Robert E. Coontz, commander-in-chief, in his official account to the navy department of what was demonstrated during the maneuvers. Admiral Coontz said in his report, extracts from which were obtained yesterday at the navy department, that the fleet was seriously embarrassed by the low speed of auxiliary ships; that ships generally had not been kept properly repaired because of lack of appropriations; that thirteen of the older battle ships needed modernization of machinery, elevation of turret guns and equipment with anti-aircraft defenses; and that submarine operations were the worst of all combatant ships taking part in the maneuvers.

CONDITION OF SUBS
All submarines are so deficient in speed as to be of small use for most work except by accident of position. Admiral Coontz reported, considering the poor material, the work of the personnel aboard the submarines is in many cases most admirable and even heroic.

Commenting upon the deficiencies in the fleet as to various types of craft, Admiral Coontz pointed out that there had been present with the fleet at Culebra at the time of the maneuvers, no light cruisers, store ships, tugs, sea-planes, colliers, repair ships, destroyer tenders, lighter than air-craft or a number of other types of auxiliary vessels.

The report urged that the building program to complete aircraft carriers, destroyers and submarine tenders and to construct light cruisers, "modern submarines," destroyers, squadron leaders and fleet hoover than air machines be pressed.

REDISCOUNT RATE CUT BY NEW YORK RESERVE BANK

WASHINGTON — Reduction of the rediscount rate by the New York Reserve Bank yesterday from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent is expected at the treasury to be followed by similar action by the reserve banks at Boston and Philadelphia.

It developed today that the reduction by the New York bank with its subsequent approval by the reserve board was a proposition originating entirely with the bank itself. Members of the reserve board, while expressing no opposition, felt it would accomplish little change in the general economic situation.

Secretary Mellon, among others, believes the reduction will do little to stimulate new business inasmuch as he regards the general money supply as adequate and the present rates easy.

BOOTLEGGERS WARNED BY "THREE GUN" PARSON

JOLIET, Ill. — Rev. Henry E. Rompel, "three gun" parson, today served notice on bootleggers within a radius of ten miles of Joliet that he would keep on raiding them until the liquor traffic was stopped.

Last night at the head of a large number of men and women and a few federal dry agents, Ray Rompel raided a half dozen roadhouses near the city.

Thirty one arrests were made and a large quantity of liquor confiscated.

KIWANIS DINNER IS SUCCESS

Ottawa Club Royal Host to This District of Ohio

LIMA HAS BIG DELEGATION

Stunts Prove Interesting to More Than 500 Members

Lima Kiwanis joined with other clubs of the First Division of Ohio Kiwanis district Wednesday night at Ottawa in an evening of good fellowship and helped boom Robert Frey, now lieutenant governor of this district, for the important job of governor of the Ohio district.

More than 500 delegates from fourteen clubs in the district attended the evening. The club represented were: Ada, Bowling Green, China, Delphos, Findlay, Kenton, Lima, Mansfield, Napoleon, Ottawa, Sidney, Toledo, Wapakoneta and North Baltimore.

Frey's name is to come prominently before the state convention to be held in the early summer. He will have the backing of the entire district, it is understood.

Russell C. Hedges, of East Liverpool, governor of Ohio Kiwanis, predicted in his address that the district soon would have another governor in the person of Frey. Walter S. Jackson, Lima, immediate past governor of the Ohio district, prophesied in his talk that Frey would be Ohio's next Kiwanis governor.

It was largely thru the efforts of Frey, supported by every member of the Ottawa Kiwanis club, that the district meeting was brought to Ottawa on such an elaborate scale.

Many attend. The trip to Ottawa was made by Lima and Toledo delegations in chartered interurban cars. The Delphos delegation came by automobile. Three bands accompanied the various clubs.

The scene at the banquet opened with the singing of the single, "Soldier, sailor and marine, immortalized by Norman Godfrey, Frank Wilson and Robert McClure, stood at attention. Miss Helen Parks, of Ottawa, represented the Goddess of Liberty. During the scene a silk American flag waved.

Rev. William Surdick, pastor of Ottawa Presbyterian church, invoked divine blessing. The Ottawa Kiwanis orchestra, directed by Edward Peck and with Dr. Burton McInnis, as song leader, led with Kiwanis songs. The address of welcome was made by D. R. Hinkle, Ottawa club president.

Hedges, who delivered the chief address of the evening, emphasized the qualities of the true Kiwanian, and declared that to the underprivileged child is being given advantages for which child life longs.

"Every child cannot have the joy of going to a laughing, laughing, laughing, wherever she lifts her head is planting just a few honeycups along the avenue to bring the child the things needed. Every child today, where Kiwanis appears, must have the privilege which every child should be given, at birth," he said.

Upon this, his latest official visit to Ottawa, Hedges was loudly applauded.

Walter S. Jackson, immediate past governor, declared that "the sun shines on both sides of the street wherever Kiwanis blossoms."

Between the various talks and introductions of the presidents of the clubs present, eight clubs put on "stunts." The two which drew the greatest applause were the ones given by Toledo and Findlay.

Toledo presented a serious one-act drama entitled, "The Valiant," showing the heroism of a condemned murderer in keeping his identity hidden even when confronted by his sister, whom he has not seen for ten years, in order to save his family from disgrace.

He cleverly bridges the situation by saying that he knew his brother in France, where he was killed in the war after he had attempted a heroic rescue of one of his mates. After his sister leaves to return home with the message that her brother died a heroic death, the criminal is led to his execution. The presentation, directed by Edward Allen of the Toledo club, showed deep study and great acting.

OTHER SHOWS. Findlay put on a little minstrel show with three "at it" comedians, black-face comedians and seven dressed up as chorus girls. Their jokes and songs kept the audience in an uproar. Tell Taylor, one of the Findlay black-face comedians, sang by special request the famous song he composed 15 years ago, "Down by the Old Mill Stream." He also is the author of "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet."

"What the Sheriff Knows About Tea," a "speaking moving picture" written by Frank Hawkins, of the Lima delegation, was Lima's stunt. Those who took part were: R. A. Helbrick, Frank Hawkins, Frank Fringing, Walt DeWoe and "Jim" Jolley.

Wapakoneta, with its exhibition of having by the nine-year-old Chesapeake Delphos, with a number of popular songs, Sidney, with its orchestra, and Ottawa, with its orchestra, professional artists from Toledo were the other clubs which put on stunts.

Y. M. C. A. Mitchell, Clara Van Pelt and Jane Matthews, pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Frankel's dancing class, also entertained. Mrs. Vivian Hobart accompanied them on the piano.

Governor Hedges declared in his address that the entertainment at Ottawa was far better than that extended by any other district in Ohio Kiwanis. He paid a tribute to Lieutenant Governor Frey and every member of Ottawa Kiwanis.

The gathering adjourned on the stroke of twelve, after a five hours' entertainment.

BOOZE DETECTORS FOR AUTOISTS

Physician's Invention Proves When a Man is Drunk

OXYGEN METHOD IS USED

Metabular Cheats Attempts of Punishment Escapes

SAN FRANCISCO.—(Associated Press).—Motorists charged with intoxication have caused numerous deaths in this vicinity recently, and in the campaign against reckless driving Dr. O. W. Ginsburg, an X-ray specialist, has offered the police a "booze detector."

The machine, according to Dr. Ginsburg, has been known in physics for some time and is called the metabular. It is a simple apparatus that determines the quantity of oxygen consumed by a patient. When a man is drunk, and how to prove it, has long been a problem in courts. This is Dr. Ginsburg's explanation of how to apply the metabular to the question of intoxication.

"It is known to medical science that a person under the influence of liquor consumes far greater quantities of oxygen than he does normally. This is natural, for alcohol is a great heat producer and calls for great quantities of oxygen to realize the consumption of heat. All that is necessary to determine the degree of intoxication is to find out the heat production going on in the body by the intake of oxygen."

PURE OXYGEN. The metabular does this. The suspect is fed pure oxygen thru a nozzle. The machine registers how much is taken into the system. Comparison with the normal intake, which can be made when the suspect is sober, will establish beyond doubt whether he was under the influence of liquor at the time of his arrest.

The city authorities have under consideration Dr. Ginsburg's plan to install metabular machines at all police stations.

It formerly was the custom here for drivers suspected of intoxication to be taken to the emergency hospital, where they were examined by a physician, who signed a certificate expressing his opinion of their condition. At present, however, the police take such a prisoner direct to headquarters, where he is held to show evidence of drunkenness.

He is booked on a charge of driving while intoxicated, a felony. Neither method has proved satisfactory in checking the evil, according to police officials. They point out that often men too far gone in liquor to drive safely are able to appear sober when subjected to medical examination, and also that the opinion of policemen usually is discounted when the cases are brought up in court.

COLD SHOWS PLACES. LONDON.—After a long British aircraft within the Arctic circle, Frank Courtney has returned and related his experiences. He says the cold was intense and discomforting, but he was not starting the engines. Oil had to be brought up to the engine point before being put into the engine. The air cooled engines start fairly easily, but strong had to be blown thru the water jackets of others to bring them up to a reasonable temperature for starting.

The leads of Coolidge and Cox slates of delegates in large over those of Johnson and McAdoo also continued to increase.

BRIDE IS MISSING IN DETROIT

Husband, Probing Alleged Abduction, Fails to Find Wife

Pretty Virginia Edwards, 24-year-old bride of John Edwards, of 741 N. Union, may still be in the hands of her alleged abductor, and the report of her escape may be false, according to word received Thursday from the husband, who went to Detroit Wednesday evening to meet his wife and bring her home.

Edwards, who is a railroad worker, received a telegram Wednesday, supposedly from his wife, stating that she gave her captor the slip Monday night in Canada, and asking him to meet her at the Western Union office in Detroit, to which the message stated she returned after making good her escape.

Edwards was unable to locate her anywhere in Detroit, according to word received by authorities Thursday morning, and it is thought that the message may have been sent by someone else to throw authorities off the trail of the fleeing couple.

The young wife was abducted, it is alleged, on the streets of Lima Monday while on her way to a dentist, and police reports from various cities show she was taken to Detroit, then to Canada.

She was seized by an unknown man, pulled into the machine, and was unable to escape because of the tremendous speed maintained by the machine.

OIL MAN TELLS OF "FIX UP" PARLEY

Testifies at Senate Investigation of Wheeler Case

WASHINGTON.—(United Press).—The "prosecutor" scored a point today in the trial of Senator Wheeler, Montana, by a senate committee.

Henry C. Glosser, former employee of Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man, who was indicted with Wheeler, testified that he would "fix up" a contest over an oil permit.

This alleged assurance, Rhea said, was given him at a secret conference in the Rainbow Hotel in Great Falls, Mont., previously mentioned by Henry C. Glosser, former employee of Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man, who was indicted with Wheeler.

Rhea said the conference took place "about January 15, 1923." When he said that he could not remember the "exact conversation," Chairman Borah said, "We only want the facts."

"The main conversation was about the Phil McGowan permit," Rhea said. "Campbell said that Wheeler would be able to get the permit approved."

"What did Wheeler say to that?" "He did not reply directly, but said that we did not need to worry as it could be taken care of when he got back here," said Rhea.

He added that Campbell remarked that Wheeler was to "get a good slice" out of the McGowan permit receipts.

NAVAL COST HIGH. LONDON.—The value of Great Britain's eastern commerce and the cost of the Navy in those seas during 1922 totalled $5,500,000,000 and $17,710,000 respectively. Official figures given in reply to a question in the House of Commons disclosed the totals.

61 BODIES FOUND. WHEELING, W. Va.—Sixty-four bodies of victims of Monday's explosion in the Benwood mill mine had been found by rescue workers today, leaving forty-six miners unaccounted for.

PARTY DIVIDED ON TAX PLAN

Senate Democrats Split on Exempt Securities Problem

WASHINGTON.—(United Press).—A split widened in the ranks of senate Democrats today and endangered their tax program, which they were confident they could force the senate to accept instead of the Mellon plan.

The rift developed over the problem of tax exempt securities. A Democratic caucus was held at the capitol last night in an effort to swing into line five or six Democrats who are ready to go over to the Mellon plan.

The question that first caused Democratic defections is an important provision inserted by Republicans to prevent millionaires from dodging their income tax obligations by buying tax exempt securities.

Democratic leaders are fighting the provision on the ground that it will affect the tax exempt securities of every state and municipality of the nation by making such securities less desirable and forcing larger interest rates. Republicans want the bill to read so rich men cannot borrow money to buy tax-exempt bonds and thus dodge their federal tax.

The Republicans reach out for this end in an intricate way. Their amendment would prevent any taxpayer from deducting under the heading of business losses and interest paid, any sum higher than the interest he received on tax-exempt securities held by him.

Some Democrats say this is simply taxing exempt securities. Senator Glass of Virginia and some others differ with their leaders and believe the provision should be inserted. A vote is expected before night on this section of the bill.

NO. 2 OIL LEASE CALLED INVALID

Not Approved by President, Witness Tells Probers

WASHINGTON.—(Associated Press).—Turning its attention for the first time to naval reserve number two, in California, the senate oil committee was advised today by Assistant Secretary Finney of the interior department that a search of the records failed to show the necessary presidential approval of the lease of over 2,000 acres in that reserve to the Honolulu Oil Company.

The lease was not valid, the witness said, unless approved by the president because Secretary Fall had no authority of his own to make such a contract.

All of naval reserve number two had been leased by Fall with the exception of 1250 acres, he said, and since Secretary Work came into office the remainder has been leased at the request of the navy department. The leases made since Fall resigned carry royalties from 61 to 50 per cent, he said, which were much higher than those under Fall.

At the conclusion of Mr. Finney's testimony the committee took a recess until May 8.

JACK DEMPSEY TO MEET WILLS

Championship Match Announced by Rickard

NEW YORK.—(Associated Press).—Tex Rickard announced today he had matched Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills for a world's heavyweight championship fight at Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, on September 6.

So far as Wills is concerned the match is contingent upon a victory over either Quintin Romero, Chilean heavyweight, or Ermilio Spalla, Italian holder of the European heavyweight title some time in June at the Jersey bowl, Rickard said.

Wills already has signed for both contests and the promoter said he had obtained the agreement of Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, to the title match with the negro. At the same time Rickard announced that he had definitely abandoned all further negotiations with Luis Angel Firpo, following the latter's rejection of the promoter's latest bid for his services and insistence that he will retire from the ring. Rickard has instructed his Buenos Aires agent, Juan Homs, to return to this country.

SURPRISE SPRUNG AT TRIAL OF CONGRESSMAN

ARLINGTON, Va.—Commonwealth Attorney Gloth today sprung a surprise when the examination of Representative Harold Knutson, Minnesota, on trial for a serious statutory offense, was resumed.

Gloth asked Knutson whether a girl in a theatrical troupe playing the town of Foley, Minn., had led him from her room in a hotel to the hotel clerk at the point of a gun and told the clerk: "Here's your future congressman. You had better take care of him or I will."

"That's a damnable, malicious lie," Knutson shouted in reply to Gloth's question. "I never stopped in a Foley hotel in my life. That story was put in your hands by my political opponents."

DAWES REPORT IS NOT POPULAR

European Countries Stalling for Payment Escape

GERMANY HIDES WEALTH

Stock Exchanges Lack Confidence in Early Settlement

By J. W. T. MASON
NEW YORK—(United Press)—All of the European nations concerned with the report of the Dawes Reparations Committee are playing for time. None of them sees the way out. Germany's acceptance of the Dawes findings means no more than did her acceptance of the Versailles peace treaty. The allies will have to continue to squeeze forcibly to get adequate recompense from Germany; and Germany will find obstacles however much she may protest her innocent intentions.

This is the reason why Europe is not showing any optimism while acceptance of the Dawes report are being announced at the various capitals. The stock exchanges reflect no confidence in an early settlement of the fundamental points at issue.

POINTS AT ISSUE

These points are three-fold: First, agreement upon a fixed indemnity, which is Germany's major aim.

Second, the abrogation of France's war debts, to Great Britain especially and secondarily to the United States which is now the most perplexing post-war problem for France;

Third, the saving of Germany's purchasing power by holding down the reparations bill so that Germany can have money to buy British goods, the chief issue for Britain.

The Ruhr and the Rhine problems are issues by themselves, which will be settled in the end, not by monetary considerations. The controlling factor will be whether France believes she can retain possession of German territory permanently by force.

The reparations solution has been advanced by the Dawes report to the extent of providing a common basis for discussion. This is its principal contribution to a European settlement. The nations concerned now have a landmark from which they can measure distances. The eventual working out of the reparations problem will be by rule of thumb, just as it has been in the past.

NEVER COLLECT MAXIMUM
The Dawes report marks the maximum amounts obtainable from Germany. What actually will be forthcoming in the end will be below the maximum, and will represent not formal compromises but the outcome of the tug-of-war back and forth across the Rhine. Germany is in the fortunate position of being able to benefit by the opening operations of the Dawes findings. The stabilization of German marks by means of loans from Germany's late enemies and the creation of a new German bank with allied funds cannot well be rejected by the Germans. Along this line, Germany will allow the allies to go as far as they like.

But once allied gold begins to put Germany back in a strong economic position the same old resistance to paying reparations will crop up in Berlin. There are scores of ways whereby the Germans will be able to conceal what they really have. CAN'T GET HIDDEN BILLIONS

The billion and one-half dollars which Germany now possesses in hoards in foreign countries has been calculated by the Dawes and McKenna investigators. But the allies can find no way of getting control of this sum.

Germany thus has scored heavily by concealing her wealth since the Versailles treaty. This period, too, marked the time when the allies were most confident of their ability to enforce their will on the Germans and had Germany far more at their economic mercy than now. The failure then is representative of failure still to come.

GIANT DREDGE DEEPENS GOLDEN GATE CHANNEL

SAN FRANCISCO—Night and day, calm or storm, the giant United States dredge Culbra carries on its task of deepening the channel outside the Golden Gate to make a pathway a ship of any size may enter or leave at any time.

The work will require eighteen months. The channel thru the Golden Gate will be made 3,000 feet long, 2,000 feet wide and 45 feet deep at low tide. To accomplish this 3,000,000 cubic feet of sand must be moved, a hundredth part as much as was moved to dig the Panama Canal. All this sand must be sucked up from the ocean bed, thru the giant lungs of the Culbra, placed on scows, taken out to sea and dumped.

The Culbra was built to assist in digging the Panama Canal and was brought around Cape Horn from the Atlantic to work on the Pacific side. When the canal was completed, the Culbra was the first ship thru.

MAY DAY MARRED BY WALKOUT

3,000 Iron Workers Go on Strike in New York

$12 PER DAY DEMANDED

Perlin Streets Patrolled as Riot is Feared

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — More than three thousand iron workers went out on strike today, demanding a closed shop and $12 for eight hour day instead of $10.50. Charles Murphy, business agent of a Manhattan local of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, said all work on construction in Manhattan and northern New Jersey was at a standstill.

The strike marred what was expected to be a May Day of complete industrial peace.

RIOT FEARED

BERLIN — (United Press) — Police broke up an extensive gathering of communist May Day demonstrators today. Heavily armed, mounted and foot detachments swarmed thru the Lustgarten, near the former Kaiser's palace, chasing the reds before them, when an outbreak seemed imminent.

The demonstration followed streets by communists that "red May" would be observed by widespread activity, despite the police ban on all agitation.

Detachments of police armed with rifles, began patrolling the principal thoroughfares shortly after dawn and threw up barricades at points where rioting was feared. The regular police service was reinforced heavily.

ARMY STRIKE

ALLIANCE — (Associated Press) — Interurban service between Canton, Alliance and Salem and city line travel in Alliance were at a standstill today following a walkout of Stark Electric Railway trainmen early this morning.

Trainmen asked a nine cent increase over the old scale for both interurban and city platform trip. The company originally asked a ten cent cut in hourly wages. This was later modified to a four cent cut.

The company's offer was rejected and the men quit work at the completion of their night run shortly after midnight when the old scale expired.

Company officials express a willingness to leave the matter to arbitration. The men have not named a sole spokesman of the arbitration board.

RUSSIAN PARADE

MOSCOW — (Associated Press) — Bolshevik Russia today departed from its usual custom of observing May Day with spectacular military parades and confined its celebration to peaceful demonstrations at the tomb of Lenin.

The authorities having decided to allot two days to the celebration, tomorrow will be given over to parades of the Communist boy scouts and children of the working classes who will take the oath of all allegiance to the revolutionary principles at Lenin's shrine.

Hundreds of thousands of workmen with their families and many government employees marched from all parts of the city today bearing flaming banners and flags and converged upon the mausoleum in Red Square, forming a spectacle hardly less impressive than that at the funeral of the premier.

GENERAL HOLIDAY — PARIS — (United Press) — Europe's labor day—May 1, was recognized by an extensive cessation of work here today.

Several hundred thousand employees of factories and shops obeyed the order of the general confederation of labor, for a May Day strike to demonstrate the power of their organizations.

Taxi users planned a reprisal strike tomorrow and agreed to refuse tips to cab men.

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The old custom of hanging May baskets in the early morning on May Day was revived at the White House today when three small children hung a basket for Mrs. Coolidge on the north door of the executive mansion.

The children had fixed the baskets to the door and were running down the steps when Mrs. Coolidge saw them and called them back to thank them. The youngest, a boy, was taken up by Mrs. Coolidge in her arms and kissed with the reminder that "I once had a little boy like you."

ACCIDENT TOLL — According to a report made by the Public Service Commission, as against 400 persons killed by steam railways in the state of New York, there were nearly 2,500 fatalities thru automobile accidents. In New York City alone in 1923, these amounted to 887.

50,000 DEAD ARE TRANSFERRED

Four Cemeteries Abandoned to Aid in City's Growth

SAN FRANCISCO — (Associated Press) — San Francisco, growing rapidly and somewhat crowded on its bottle-neck of a peninsula, will move the bodies of 50,000 of its dead from four cemeteries to make room for the living.

The board of supervisors has just passed an ordinance for the removal of all the bodies from two cemeteries, and it is said to be a foregone conclusion that the other two cemeteries also will be abandoned.

Once the cemeteries were far removed from San Francisco's business and residential quarters. Now they are in the heart of some of the city's finest residential districts and their areas are badly needed. The campaign for their removal, bitterly fought, lasted five years and included a state legislative act declared unconstitutional by the supreme court.

Proponents of cemetery removal built their campaign on the idea that "the dead have rights, but the living have superior rights." Opponents contended that the removal was fostered by "land grabbers in collusion with certain cemetery officials, booting the dead from their resting places to make profits for the living." They also declared "these dead are historic" and maintained that removal would bring a pestilence. Proponents responded that the old, untenanted cemeteries were "eyesores and not fit places for historic dead" and denied any danger from removal operations.

The total land to be reclaimed amounts to about 70 city blocks, or 214 acres. The territory will be subdivided into lots. The cemeteries date from the gold rush days of 1849.

STRANGE POISON STORY UNFOLDED

Chemist's Quest of Happiness Leads to Prison Cell

MURDER ATTEMPT CHARGED

C. O. Baring Tale Declared More Tragic Than Waite Case

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., (Special)—For many years formulae had been the very life of Clarence O. Baring, chemist; but now they may be leading to his long death in a prison cell, or further afield.

For he tried to work out a formula for his own happiness, but he brought about only the near death of his wife, when business hours of poisoning her for months.

As a result, Mr. Baring has been indicted on charges of attempted murder, poisoning and other offenses, and is now in the hands of the law.

And the hope is that he might have fled to sea.

Back of all this strange tale of a modern Cassius Marbury, is John Hyde, who was one man when alone with his wife and his formulae, and another when with his wife.

It is a tale that is even more tragic than the Dr. Arthur Waite case, which ended with the death of a woman and the electric chair in 1914 for the poisoning and murder of her husband.

For in the Waite case, the man proved to be the motive force in the crime.

But in the Baring case, a longing for happiness seems to be the main motive.

Baring, 34, is a chemist. He was married 11 years ago, and the difference in their ages seems to have widened ever since.

"Most of my life has been a series of disappointments," says Baring, "but I have never given up."

But there is now happiness in his life. He is now a chemist, and his wife has been cured of her illness.

He tried to convert this into a laboratory, but he was not successful.

However, his wife had nothing to do with the poisoning. It was all his own work.

Finally she became ill. Her physician was puzzled by her ailment. Her husband took her to Atlantic City, but her condition grew worse.

He brought her back to a hotel in New York. Finally she had to be taken home in an ambulance.

She began to suspect that she was being poisoned. Her physician agreed with her, and the watch on her husband began.

Whenever Baring went away, his wife's condition improved. It was said, as soon as he returned and began nursing her, the illness increased.

Examination of the food given her showed signs of arsenic and germ poisoning.

At the same time it was discovered that Baring was getting many phials of diphtheria, pneumonia, typhoid and influenza germs from two New York hospitals, for "experimental purposes."

Baring was identified as Baring. And the arrest was finally made.

On arraignment in court, he pleaded guilty. "Except for the intent to kill," the judge instructed him as a plea of "Not Guilty," and Baring will have to stand trial.

A defense of insanity probably will be developed. Some of his friends say that he has been suffering from a chemical complex, a pseudo scientific obsession that grew so strong that he may have used his wife for his experiments with out her knowledge.

But the shadow of a young teacher, or beauty, across the tragedy. For she is believed to be the other woman in the case.

But whatever his problems, Baring tried to solve them in the way of the chemist, and found that for once his formulae did not work.

Rev. E. Bruce Jacobs, pastor of Calvary Reformed church, was in Dayton, Wednesday, attending the commencement exercises of Central Theological seminary. He was accompanied by his wife and son, Keith.

PRINCIPALS IN POISON CASE

Changes Taking Place in China Are Described

RESULT OF EDUCATION

Assaults Upon Aliens Are Cited As Evidence

BEIJING, (Associated Press)—Two recent incidents, one involving an assault upon a foreigner and the other an alleged invasion of civil rights, following as they do upon a long succession of more serious events growing out of the prevalence of bandits, have served to accentuate a widespread consciousness among foreigners residing in north China that the special consideration formerly enjoyed by them at the hands of Chinese, both official and civilian, is definitely waning.

Various reasons for such a change of attitude, as it is called, have been advanced. The old residents in the country, the favorite ones in the eyes of several nations, are now being crowded out by the new, who are more numerous and more energetic. It is also said to be due to growing enlightenment on the part of the Chinese, and to an increasing number of foreign educated Chinese engaged in governmental, military and economic affairs. Others attribute it to the belief on the part of the Chinese that foreign nations under prevailing disturbed conditions are in no mood to maintain their former privilege status by force.

BRITAIN ATTACKED

The first of the incidents in question, and one which aroused considerable interest, occurred recently when E. E. Bessell, British traffic manager employed by the Peking-Mukden railway at Peking, was savagely attacked because of a controversy over the attaching of a special Pullman car to the regular train from Peking.

After protesting that it was contrary to regulations, and while in the act of conveying to the demand under menace of violence, Bessell was knocked down by armed soldiers. While unable to defend himself he was kicked by the man, described by him as an officer. In charge of the car.

The more recent occurrence was the disregard, with little or no warning, by Feng Yu-hsiang, the Chinese general and commander of the Peking garrison, of traffic regulations in the Legation Quarter, and the striking and dispersing of a Chinese policeman employed by the foreign administration of the Legation reservation.

The regulations call for a dimming of motor lights and moderation of speed. General Feng, en route to dine with Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, an American, happened upon the main thoroughfare at high speed and with glowing lights. He resented being stopped. Outriders on the footboard of the motor car hustled the offending policeman out of the way and struck him when he resisted.

General Feng himself got out of the car and took the beaten away from the policeman. He is said to be an old offender, having been previously cautioned about speeding in the Legation precincts. The administration of the Quarter is considering what steps to take to enforce their regulations.

STURDY EVERGREEN WINS FIGHT AGAINST ELEMENTS

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK, Montana.—There stands today on the Rocky Mountain side of this park an ancient evergreen tree that shows evidence of having battled with the elements for its existence for three centuries.

High snow drifts, heaped from the mountain tops, crush the tree to earth each winter and there it lies, growing along the ground. The trunk is 12 inches in diameter. Every spring it tries to rise, but it never can grow up like other trees because every winter there is a hundred-foot drift of snow in this particular spot in Cracker Canyon. The Glacier Park forester's estimate its age at 300 years.

Shortly after The Lima News announced a new service to its readers whereby subscribers between the ages of 15 and 50 might buy a $500 certificate of group life insurance for $5.20 a year without physical examination, Mrs. Nettie B. Parks, 111 W. Vine St., called at The News office and made application for this insurance and received her certificate December 1, 1923. Her daughter, Bertha Idella Parks, 13 years of age, was named beneficiary and Mrs. Parks remarked at the time she was making out her application that she was taking out this insurance so that if anything would happen to her, Bertha could use it to secure an education.

When this check was presented to Mr. Parks, Guardian of Bertha I. Parks, he was emphatic in his praises for The Lima News and its unusual insurance service, and grateful for the promptness with which the claim was paid.

"I hope every News subscriber will accept my advice," he said, "and take advantage of this exceptional service which will mean so much to my daughter."

The group life insurance plan under which Mrs. Parks was insured was worked out by Lima News officials as a service contemporaneous to the popular travel accident insurance which this newspaper supplies its subscribers. The Lima News was one of the first newspapers in Ohio to make the exceptional offer, and in doing so makes it possible for any reader, man or woman, aged 15 to 50, to buy a $500 certificate of group life insurance, in the reliable Gem City Life Insurance of Dayton, Ohio, for the slight cost of $5.20 a year, payable quarterly. No physical examination is required. The advantages of this plan are obvious, and subscribers have responded to the offer with alacrity. SPRING FESTIVAL IS SUCCESS

San Francisco Sets Precedent in Backing Music Program

500 VOICES IN CHORUS

Symphony Orchestra's Recital is Anniversary Observance

SAN FRANCISCO — The city government of San Francisco apparently has sponsored successfully an enterprise unusual for a municipality, a spring music festival, which has just closed. The Board of Supervisors plans to make the festival an annual event, with the city guaranteeing the expense of promoting it.

For the purpose the city is in partnership with the Musical Society of San Francisco, which is the organization back of the San Francisco symphony orchestra, the musical nucleus of the festival.

This spring the festival consisted of four concerts, held in the Civic Auditorium, which seats 10,000. It is estimated that the audiences of the four concerts aggregated 36,000. Prices were "popular."

The festival came at the close of the regular symphony season, and the orchestra director, Alfred Hertz, was conductor of the festival concerts, which he planned and arranged. The symphony orchestra was augmented and the instrumentalists supplemented by a chorus of more than 500 men and women, recruited locally and trained over a period of months. Several soloists, including Mario Chamlee, Claire Dux, Merle Alcock and Clarence Whitehill, operatic singers, were engaged. The auditorium organ was an added instrument in several of the programs.

The climax of the festival, coming on the night of the last concert, was a presentation of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, held by critics generally to be the greatest symphonic composition. The performance was a centennial celebration of the work, since it first was given in Vienna in the spring of 1824. Beethoven worked on it eleven years, during most of which time he was entirely deaf. His directed its initial performance and had to be pushed around facing the audience before he knew of the thunderous applause that came at the close. The San Francisco audience, after a century, was hardly less enthusiastic. Cheers swelled the applause. Acting Mayor Ralph M. Hiram, presenting Director Hertz with a laurel wreath, pronounced the 12,000 persons who packed the auditorium that the festival would be held annually.

The principal features of the other programs were the "Faust" symphony of Liszt and the Second Symphony of the late Gustav Mahler, who for years was a symphony conductor in New York. The Liszt and Mahler symphonies, like the Beethoven masterpiece, utilize the voice in chorus and solo in their finales, after the usual instrumental movements. One of the concerts was devoted to selections from operas.

COMPLETION OF CATTLE TESTS EXPECTED SOON

Bovine tuberculosis eradication work in Allen-co is rapidly going forward and the county should be cleaned up within another week, H. J. Ridge, county farm agent, believes.

Only three of the five men sent here by the state for the work are still here. Drs. Beebe and Davis were recalled and sent to California to aid in the fight there against the hoof and mouth disease.

Dr. DeFossett, inspector in charge of the eradication work in the county, visited Lima Tuesday to see how the work is coming along. He stated that eight other counties are asking for men to come and begin their eradication work.

Reactors found in the testing work were slaughtered Wednesday.

HORSE SENSE

BEING ADVICE BY "CLOVER," 51, OLDEST HORSE IN THE WORLD

BY CLOVER

(The Oldest Horse in the World, Owned by Rev. N. Meyers, Catawissa, Pa.)

I am 51 years old, but my life is not a burden. As I grew older I found my load became lighter, and I feel as young today as I did when I first kicked over the traces.

I have jogged and trotted and galloped thru life and it has not left me without a feed-bag full of horse sense.

I was pacing a wicked step in the days before autos were heard of. I have passed them and they have passed me. They have crowded me from the road and filled my nostrils with foul smells of oil, but I have only pity for them. Theirs is a fast and short life. In four or five years they go to the bone-yard, their term of service ended—they are not even fit to make a good pot of kine!

Since my early colthood I have felt keenly the driving force that has urged me on to greater things. I never hesitated on an upgrade. Any wise horse knows that what goes up must come down.

I have always found great pleasure in stalling, but only in the proper place.

Wild oats, contrary to their reputation, are tasty and satisfying, but the silo will hark many a good horse. Between my own natural temperance and a high fence around my master's silo I am able to boast that silo juice never passed my bit.

To those equine fellows of mine who would benefit by my experience, I say that it is a long road that has no turning, and that life cannot be saddled with so many woes that there is not yet a chance to stir up a good old horse laugh.

On the main, I have enjoyed a huge kick in life.

HOUSES FALL IN RUINS; OCCUPANTS FLEE DANGERS

LISBON — Lisbon threatens soon to become a city of ruins, unless something can be done to save its collapsing dwellings. For a variety of reasons, including poor foundations, the use of a soft clay, a series of heavy rainstorms and a number of slight earthquakes, houses seem to be falling to pieces, with consequent injury to inhabitants.

Hundreds of families have been obliged to leave their unstable homes, and some 50 tenements have been declared dangerous. The dwellers have been moved into convents and barracks. The first house went down about two weeks ago, during a heavy rainstorm.

AUTO COST

From a checking made by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, the average maintenance and operating cost of salesmen's cars is about $16.36 per week, exclusive of depreciation.

By Mail, One Year $5. City Carrier, 15 Cents a Week

Special Counsel

The city commission has just appropriated $2,000 for the employment of special counsel in the Farley suit against the city. This is in addition to the salary of the regular city solicitor, who is paid $3,500 a year.

We had hoped that the respite we have been enjoying from special counsel and special engineers and special experts of this and that description might be made permanent. It appears that our city government has not changed in this respect.

Not so long ago it was the vogue to hire a special representative at every turn. Now we are starting on the same track. The $2,000 probably is only a beginning in this matter. It is so easy to stretch out these matters and the original estimate of the cost is usually only a small part of the actual expense.

The city has a legal director. He is paid a salary to take care of all legal matters for the city. But we are paying out in one chunk more than enough to pay his salary for half a year. And at the time when we can't afford luxuries.

When will the time arrive when we will have a city solicitor who can handle big cases against Lima without an array of assistants? If we have to hire lawyers every time we have a lawsuit, why not dispense with the office of solicitor and give a stenographer an ordinance book and let her copy out the ordinances the commission wants? If that is all we are to get for our $3,500, our official legal talent is coming pretty high.

Waste

Another state primary has passed into history. And another glaring example of the foolishness and waste of such elections has been brought to light.

Votes cost $2 each in Allen-co. That is more than the politicians paid for them in the old days at a regular election. The taxpayers will pay the bill in this instance. And what do they profit?

Primaries are not institutions for the majority, as they exist, but for the minority — mostly politicians. The majority does not vote and the minority nominates candidates, which means nothing in the general election.

Primaries in Ohio are jokes. The public would be far better off if we were to go back to the old convention system.

Cox

Ohio has paid a distinct honor to James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for nomination for president. Voters, while the vote was very light, rebuked William G. McAdoo at Tuesday's primary and gave Cox a testimonial of the high esteem in which his home state holds him. Cox would make a strong candidate. The New York convention could do a great deal worse than to nominate him.

Masters

The horse and cow have existed on earth 10 times as long as man, according to Dr. Master of Denison University.

It makes us wonder why horses and cows aren't ruling us instead of vice versa, provided the scientists are correct in their claim that man in his original state had no more intelligence than other beasts.

But man had CURIOSITY, the force that develops the mind. Answer Willie's questions patiently. The more questions he asks, the more potential intelligence he has, waiting to be developed.

Spring makes everybody want to be somewhere else, even after they get there.

UP TO DAVE

Man Back of G. O. P. Meeting

(BY HARRY B. HUNT)

WASHINGTON — Meet Dave Mulvane, the Strong Man from Kansas.

Dave is the Hercules on whose shoulders has been loaded the task of getting everything shipshape for the Republican convention at Cleveland, June 10.

Up to the minute the gavel falls, calling the 1100 delegates, the 1100 alternates, the 500 correspondents, the 2000 "distinguished guests" and the 8000 favored spectators to "order," Dave, as chairman of the committee on arrangements, must shoulder the big burden of the G. O. P. show. But once the key-note sounds his keynote, Dave will leave the ring-masters "carry on."

A kindly-mannered, jolly-faced, soft-spoken man of 61 is Mulvane, with rather bushy gray hair, pleasant eyes beaming from behind rimless glasses and an air of easy cordiality.

He dropped into Washington for a final discussion of convention needs. He promised Chairman Adams to have everything in shipshape for the arrival of national committee heads on June 1.

Mulvane, born in Illinois, now claims Topeka, Kas., as home. He practices law there.

The pace of the Cleveland convention, until after the nomination of Calvin Coolidge to succeed himself, it has been determined, will be dignified and leisurely. That is, barring any monkey-wrenches in the machinery by La Follette, Borah, Johnson and others who have been read out of the party by its conservative leadership.

Tuesday, June 10, will come the keynote—probably by Secretary of State Hughes—and the appointment of committees.

Wednesday, committee reports will be received and the platform nailed down.

Not until Thursday, according to present schedule, will nominations be opened.

Even allowing adequate time for a proper Coolidge demonstration, it is believed the formalities of endorsing Cal for the top of the ticket will be concluded in a sufficiently short time to allow the presentation of vice presidential nominations that same afternoon. Probably a test ballot will be taken on the vice presidential slate and the nomination might even be made, but that is more likely to go over until Friday morning.

"There's no need for hurrying the work of the convention," a member of the national committee explains.

"We want it to last at least three days. Cleveland wants a chance to entertain us and show us some Buckeye hospitality."

SPREADIN' GOOD CHEER

(BY HAL COCHRAN)

The world likes the man with the hearty hello; the fellow who greets you with pep. For he spreads the spirit that's likely to grow and get everybody in step.

There's something that's real in the slap on the back (that is, if the slap's not too hard.) The man who can do it—well, he's got the knack and he'll never from friendship be barred.

We all have our troubles and sorrows in life, but why should we constantly chatter about things that are really our personal strife, and to all other people don't matter.

It's easy to play just the optimist's part when you're talking with people that greet you. Let cheery words come and the sad ones depart and they'll always be tickled to meet you.

If you are a grouch there's a tonic you need. Just follow the tip given here: In things optimistic step into the lead and forever be spreadin' good cheer.

As the weather grows warmer, dresses become more scant. By August all left of them will be the outskirts.

The average man's idea of highbrow music is a phonograph record with something on only one side.

With so many men working for the presidential candidates it looks like a great year for the cigar stores.

Very early up and to Childs for radishes and prunes. Then about the town. On the Avenue. Women still stick to straps for their shoes. The game did say they were going out.

Scarf! Scarf! Scarf! When you enter a store and think there is a light. It's only the scramble at the scarf counter. Tailored suits are still going big. With all sorts of blouses. The new straw hats have come. Sailors small, with high crowns.

Finding myself opposite the residence of the world's second richest man, drew up. So, crossed to Lexington-av to look at these re-modelled homes. Of Miss Anne Morgan, and more. Albeit, could see nothing whatever to rave over. And truly an eerie section, with more of future than past. Hurried by a hospital and into the sub, then down to Chambers-st. Where I missed my man, having been gone less than ten minutes. The city now mourning for Charles F. Murphy, greatest of all the Tammany Hall chiefs.

This being my birthday, must telegraph mother. She deserves congratulations. There's old Delmonico's. Where it was when the Royal Blue Line pointed it out as the place you paid 25c for a pot of coffee. Now you pay 35c the pot in a second-hand hotel, and 35c for a pint of ginger ale.

Took a bus and dropped in the Metropolitan Museum. To look again on the Raphael Madonna. If ever I can owe a million dollars, a fine painting will be my next debit. The albino, the Oriental jades, all ways are fascinating. By bus to Madison Square. Stopped in a bird store. Parrots cost $42 for young ones guaranteed to talk latin. And $60 for present gabblers. One of these kept saying, "Shut the door. See Joe, he's cheaper than Jim. Jim stinks everybody. Robs 'em alive."

Dined, with my sister and family at an exotic restaurant, Hungarian, on Houston-st. Very good. Eats with too much seasoning, me that. Then by gas wagon to the Century Theatre. And there left them to witness the greatest religious spectacle, "The Miracle," wonder-work of Comstock and Gest. Being much alone. Early to bed, praising the saints for my strong will power so to do. When millions of candles were blinking and beckoning along The Great White Way.

LIMA NEWS HEALTH SERVICE

—BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY—

A READER WITH A SORE HEAD

Maybe there is no use writing day or oftener, particularly before and after taking food.

This far before you chuck my letter in the waste basket and deposit my postage stamp in your capacious stamp receptacle. By the way, let me say right here that I'm going to put my John Hancock at the end of my letter, and let me ask where you warehouse your stamp collection nowadays? I am hoping for a reply, but I am nothing if not sanguine. I am troubled occasionally with small sores in the mouth that are sometimes painful and to say the least annoying. They are whitish and range in size from a pin-head to that of a pea. I have heard them called cankers. I would not be surprised to hear you say there is no such thing as I describe, but if by any chance you do recognize such a condition. . . . —(E. B. W.)

Answer—Your sarcasm, as it seems to me, is purely for the sake of sarcasm, whereas mine, as it seems to me, has some extenuation. When I assure somebody there is no such thing on earth as catarrh, nervous breakdown, acute indigestion, female weakness, open or closed pores, and the like, my ulterior and maybe subtle motive is to arouse somebody's interest in his or her health to the extent of trying to find out what really is the matter. I do no mean to be disagreeable when I tell you something you know which isn't so, isn't it.

The little ulcers, or sores you describe so well, which you say vary from the size of your head to that of my mind, are in all probability, it gives me great pain and anguish to admit, canker sores. I might even sympathize with you just a wee trifle about them, for I was subject to them myself. But I must not do so, for it would be out of character. Imagine me sympathizing with anybody.

I suggest that you touch each little sore daily with a mixture of glycerine and tincture of iodine, half and half, by means of a toothpick with the end wrapped with cotton and dipped in the mixture—a fresh application for each sore each time, and just a gentle touch. Then fix up a saturated solution of boric acid, by dissolving a tablespoonful of boric acid in a pint of freshly boiled water, or a little more boric acid if all that dissolves, and rinse the mouth gently with it, tepid or gently warmed, half a dozen times a day.

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tell you there is danger ahead. A healthy bladder does not act at night. J. H. Barton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am alright." Lithiated Buchu (Lithium) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at all leading drug stores or Keller Laboratories, Manufacturing, Ohio. Houser's Drug Store, Adamsburg, Ohio.

How Nervous Lawyer Found Health and Strength

Earl F. Drake, a prominent lawyer of Phoenix, Arizona, writes: "Within six months I gained twelve pounds and never felt better in my life. Everyone remarks about my improved appearance." He says Boro-Phosphate did it. Try it yourself. Obtainable at every good drug store. adv

JUST FOLKS

—BY EDGAR A. GUNNY—

THE RULING PASSION

Oh, I would be a richer man with many a dime to spend
If I could but say "no" to them, who come with books to sell.
If I could send those men away, nor hear the things they have to say,
I'd some day be a man of wealth and not a se'er-de-well.

The wife might have the dress she needs and many a stylish hat,
The children, too, might have the shoes they badly need to wear,
If glib men did not come along and find me weak who would be strong,
And bid me change my salary for volumes old and rare.

Some men have drunk their wages down and some with the dice have gamed,
And some have flung their all before a woman's pretty looks;
But wine and game and women fair are not the things for which I care,
'Tis not to them my money goes,—my weakness is for books!

I hear the tempter's voice repeat the treasures I have coveted,
I view the plates he shows to me and wish that they were mine;
The vows I'd made I then forget, I can't resist just one more set,
Another agent has my name upon the dotted line!

Sometimes the drunkard will reform, the good wife off declares,
Sometimes the gambler quits his dice, and righteous turn the crooks,
Sometimes love will bring back to you the fickle man and keep him true,
But no one ever saved the man whose passion runs to books.

How to care for Dull Hair
Just washing hair cleans it, yet what a difference in its appearance a little bluing makes! Like linen, hair requires something more than soap and water to make it really beautiful. If you honestly want lustrous, brilliant, real beauty, use your hair, you must put it there. Golden Glint Shampoo begins where plain shampooing stops. It gives the hair a natural radiance truly beautiful, a long-lived brightness that lasts between shampoos, a delicate color emphasis quickly suited to your own particular shade. You'll never know how really well your hair can look until you've had a Golden Glint Shampoo. Try one, say at all druggists.

The Sigma management has one of the most unusual pictures of the year in "The Bad Man" which opens a three day stay at this theatre Friday. Holbrook Blinn, the star of the original stage play, enacts the same role in the film version and is fully supported by Enid Bennett and Jack Mulhall.

The Hawkins-Ball Co. will present the stage play next week at the Lyric and it is certain that after viewing the picture every one will want to see the legitimate performance.

The story of "The Bad Man" is founded upon the operations of the Pancho Villa along the border. Porter Emerson Brown's facile pen has drawn in all the characters of the delightful satire which turns out to be the most serious moments into the humorous.

Blinn, in the title role, finds he is a friend of the woman whose cat he has stolen, and in return for saving his life the bandit attempts to settle the financial and love affairs of his friends. The manner in which he accomplishes this makes one of the most absorbing screen stories of the season.

In the supporting cast are Walter McGrath, Harry Myers, Charles Selup and Teddy Sampson.

Says Piles Heal Up and Disappear Forever

blom Fails to Give Absolute Relief from All Pain and Suffering. Guaranteed by Hunter's Drug Store, Green's Drug Store, and All Good Druggists.

Many sufferers from Piles or hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them.

To these people we say, "Go to our druggist and get an original box of MOAVA SUPPOSITORIES." One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, anti-inflammation first they relieve the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles see them to heal up and disappear.

It is simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments, marvelous results have been obtained. MOAVA is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and any sufferer from Piles or hemorrhoids who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

DRY AGENTS ACCUSED OF FIRING AT DOCTOR

DAYTON — Indications today are that the Dayton Automobile Club will ask Attorney General Crabbe to lay down the law for constables and other raiding officials of roadside courts, following the fusillade of shot fired at Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Cope, Wednesday by dry men operating out of Squire Green's court.

Cope and his wife were returning from Piqua. A man swung a lantern before them. Two others appeared. All drew their arms. The doctor thought it was a hold-up, stepped on the gas and then came the shots. The doctor thinks it were fired at him. One bullet punctured a tire but he kept on going.

A kindly mannered, pudgy faced, off-spoken man of 61 is Mulvane, with rather thinning gray hair, prominent eyes, beaming from behind rimless glasses and in air of easy confidence.

He dropped into Washington for a final discussion of convention details. He planned to return to Adams to have everything in shipshape for the arrival of a final committee heads on June 1.

Mulvane, born in Illinois, now claims Tonawanda, has a home. He practices law there.

The pace of the school convention until after the nomination of Calvin Coolidge, to proceed, hence it has been determined will be dignified and business-like. That is, having any monkey wrenches in the machinery by T. Elliott, Borah, Johnson and others who have been read out of the party by its executive leaders.

SPREADIN' GOOD CHEER

(BY HAL COCHRAN)

The world likes the man with the hearty hello, the fellow who greets you with pep. For he spreads the spirit that is likely to grow and get everybody in step.

There's something that's real in the slap on the back (that is if the slap's not too hard). The man who can do it—will he's got the knack and he'll never from friendship be barred.

We all have our troubles and sorrows in life, but why should we constantly chatter about things that are really our personal strife, and to all other people don't matter.

It's easy to play just the optimist's part when you're talking with people that greet you. Let cheer words come and the sad ones depart and they'll always be tickled to meet you.

If you are a glumch there's a tonic you need. Just follow the tip given here. In things optimistic step into the lead and forever be spreading good cheer.

As the weather grows warmer, dresses become more scant. By August all left of them will be the outskirts.

The average man's idea of a highbrow made a phonograph record with something on only one side.

With so many men working for the presidential candidates it looks like a great year for the cigar stores.

Very early up and to Childs for breakfast, and pines for a pot of coffee. Now the town. On the Avenue. Women still sick to straps for their shoes. And the some did say they were going out.

Scarf? Scarf? Scarf? Who? You enter a store and think there is a scarf. It's only the scumable at the scarf counter. Tailored and are still going big. With all so is of blouses. The new straw hats have become sailors small with high crowns.

Finding myself opposite the residence of the world's second richest man, drew up. So crossed to Lexington to look at these modeled homes of Miss Anne Morgan and more. Albert, could see nothing whatever to take over. And truly an eerie section, with more of future than past. Hurried by a hospital and into the subway, then down to Chambers st. Where I missed a man having been gone less than ten minutes. The city now mourning for Charles I. Murphy, greatest of all the funny old Irish chiefs.

This being my birthday, must telegraph mother. She deserves congratulations. There's dear Delmonico's. Where it was when the Royal Blue Line pointed it out as the place you paid 25c for a pot of coffee. Now the town. On the Avenue. Women still sick to straps for their shoes. And the some did say they were going out.

Took a bus and dropped in the Metropolitan Museum. To look again on the Raphael Madonna. I ever I can owe a million dollars a year painting will be my next debt. The artist the Oriental gals alone. Sailors small with high crowns.

Madison Square. Stopped in a bird store. Parrots cost $42 for young ones guaranteed to talk Latin. And $50 for present gabblers. One of these kept saying, "Shut the door. See Joe he's cheaper than Jim Jim stinks everybody. Robs 'em alive."

Dined with my sister and family at an exotic restaurant, Hungarian, on Houston st. Very good. Eat with too much seasoning, me that. Then he was wagon to the Century Theatre. And there left them to witness the greatest religious spectacle, "The Miracle," wonder-work of Constock and Gest. Being much alone. Early to bed, playing the saints for my strong will power so to do. When millions of candles were winking and beckoning along The Great White Way.

LIMA NEWS HEALTH SERVICE

—BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY—

A READER WITH A SORE HEAD

Maybe there is no use writing this but I am hoping you will get this far before you chuck my letter in the waste basket and deposit my postage stamp in your capacious stamp receptacle. By the way, let me say right here that I'm going to put my John Hancock at the end of my letter and let me ask where you warehouse your stamp collection nowadays? I am hoping for a reply, but I am nothing if not sanguine. I am troubled occasionally with small sores in the mouth that are sometimes painful and to say the least annoying. They are whitish and range in size from a pin head to that of a pea. I have heard them called cankers. I would not be surprised to hear you say there is no such thing as I describe but if by any chance you do recognize such a condition . . . —(E. B. W.)

Answer—Your ailment as it seems to me, is purely for the sake of sarcasm, whereas mine, as it seems to me, has some extenuation. When I assure somebody there is no such thing on earth as a catarrh, nervous breakdown, acute indigestion, female weakness, open pi closed pores and the like mix niter and maybe subtle motive is to arouse somebody's interest in his or her health to the extent of trying to find out what really is the matter. I do not mean to be disagreeable when I tell you something you know which isn't so and so.

The little ulcers or sores you describe so well which you say vary from the size of your head to that of my mind, are in all probability, it gives me great pain and anguish to admit canker sores. I might even sympathize with you just a wee trifle about them for I was subject to them myself. But I must not do so, for it would be out of character. I imagine me sympathizing with any body.

I suggest that you touch each little sore daily with a mixture of glycerine and tincture of iodine half and half. It means of a toothpick with the end wrapped with cotton and dipped in the mixture—a fresh application for each sore each time, and just a gentle touch. Then fix up a saturated solution of borax and by dissolving a tablespoonful of borax in a pint of freshly boiled water or a little more borax and if all that dissolves and rinse the mouth gently with it tepid or gently warmed half a dozen times a day.

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tell me there is danger ahead. A healthy bladder does not act at night. I. H. Dorem, W. Graham, Va. says: "I had to get up every night at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithated Buchu a short time I am alright. I'll bet if you change the bladder at 8 p.m. salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. I lithated Buchu (Keller's formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. JUST FOLKS

—BY EDGAR A. GUNST—

THE RULING PASSION
Oh, I would be a richer man with many a dime to spend. If I could but say "yes" to them, who come with books to sell, if I could send those men away, nor hear the things they have to say. I'd some day be a man of wealth and not a ne'er-do-well.

The wife might have the dress she needs and many a stylish hat. The children, too, might have the shoes they sadly need to wear. If glib men did not come along and find me weak who would be strong. And bid me change my salary for volumes old and rare.

Some men have drunk their wages down and some with the dice have gamed. And some have hung their all before a woman's pretty looks; But wine and game and women fair are not the things for which I care. 'Tis not to them my money goes—my weakness is for books!

I hear the tempter's voice repeat the treasures I have coveted. I view the plates he shows to me and wish that they were mine. The vows I'd made I then forget, I can't resist just one more set. Another agent has my name upon the dotted line!

Sometimes the drunkard will reform, the good wife oft declares. Sometimes the gambler quits his dice and righteous turn the crooks. Sometimes love will bring back to you the fickle man and keep him true. But no one ever saved the man whose passion runs to books.

Re-roof for the last time — right over the old shingles

There's none of this

THIS is the most inexpensive way to get a fine-looking, permanent and fire-safe roof.

You save the cost of tearing off the old roof and having the old shingles carted away. You save your lawn and shrubbery from possible damage by falling shingles, and the job doesn't take so long.

You get a better roof too, because the old shingles under the new are valuable as insulation and additional protection.

The new Johns-Manville Asbestos Shingled roof, laid either by Hexagonal or American method, is one of the handsomest roofs on the market today.

Call, write or telephone and we will show you samples and give you an estimate for application on your house.

Lyric—Three Weeks with Conrad Nagel and Aileen Pringle in "The Bad Man" and "The Marriage Cheat".

Sigma—The Picture Version of "The Bad Man" with Holbrook Blinn.

U Drive—The Picture Version of "The Bad Man" with Holbrook Blinn.

(H) GERTRUDE GILLHAM—Sigma management has one of the most unusual pictures of the season, "The Bad Man" which opens a three day stay at this theatre Friday.

Holbrook Blinn, the star of the original stage play, enacts the same role in the film version and is supported by Enid Bennett and Jack Mulhall.

The Hawkins-Ball Co. will present the stage play next week at the Lyric and it is certain that after seeing the picture every one will want to see the legitimate performance.

The story of "The Bad Man" is based upon the operations of the Pancho Villa along the border. Porter Emerson Browne's facile pen has drawn in all the characters of the most serious moments into humorous.

Even in the title role, finds he is a friend of the woman whose cat has stolen, and in return for saving his life the bandit attempts to take the financial and love of his friends. The manner in which he accomplishes this makes of the most absorbing screen of the season.

In the supporting cast are Walter Catlett, Harry Myers, Charles Selby and Teddy Sampson.

The Marriage Cheat which has been booked for appearance at the Sigma next week is being held up.

CROSS CONNECTICUT FLIGHT PLANNED

DAYTON — Preparations today were announced for the third attempt by Lieutenant Russell J. Maughan to fly from New York to San Francisco, between breakfast time and supper time, on or about May 15.

The Curtiss racer will be of the same type the used last year in two attempts which ended in failure due to mechanical trouble. It will, however, have a larger gas tank, which was constructed at McCook Field. Maughan is at Kelly Field, Texas, awaiting orders to report at Mitchell Field and turn up for the trans-continental dash.

WOOSTER COLLEGE HEAD RELEASED FROM HOSPITAL

Wishart, moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly and president of Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio, who has been a patient in a hospital here for almost two months, suffering from typhoid fever, was released today by order of his physician. After spending several days with friends Dr. Wishart will go to his home at Wooster.

Dr. Wishart has a slight temporary lameness the effect of the fever, his doctor said. The moderator expects to preside at the general assembly in Grand Rapids, Mich., beginning May 22.

Regular monthly meeting of the Lima Life Underwriters association will be held Saturday noon at Barr hotel. The meeting will be of an entirely business nature.

Says Piles Heal Up and Disappear Forever

Idon fails to Give Absolute Relief from All Pain and Suffering. Guaranteed by Hunter's Drug Store, Green's Drug Store, and All Good Druggists.

Many sufferers from Piles or Hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them.

To these people we say, 'Go to your druggist and get an original box of MOAYA SUPPOSITORIES. One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, anti-inflammatory action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles cause them to heal up and disappear forever.'

It's simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments, marvelous results have been obtained. MOAYA is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and any sufferer from Piles or Hemorrhoids who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

DRY AGENTS ACCUSED OF FIRING AT DOCTOR

DAYTON — Indications today are that the Dayton Automobile Club will ask Attorney General Crabbe to lay down the law for constables and other raiding officials of roadside courts, following the fusillade of shot fired at Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Cope, Wednesday by dry men operating out of Squire Green's court.

Cope and his wife were returning from Piqua. A man swung a lantern before them. Two others appeared. All drew their guns. The doctor thought it was a hold-up, stepped on the gas and then saw the shots. The doctor thinks he were fired at him. One bullet punctured a tire but he kept on going.

SHAKESPEARE STUDY CLUB LUNCHEON

Mrs. Ross E. Mullen ended her very successful regime as president of the Shakespeare Study club on Thursday. When she presided at the luncheon, she was joined by the active and associate members of the club and their guests at the Hotel Argonne. Under Mrs. Mullen's guidance, the club has experienced many unusually interesting and instructive meetings. Mrs. E. C. Abrams is the incoming president.

Preceding the luncheon, there was an informal reception on the piazza. In the receiving line were the old officers, the past presidents and the afternoon's speaker, Professor Childs Harold Freeman of Ohio Northern University. Tables for the luncheon were in the Crystal room and were very attractive. Yellow and purple, colors of the club, were used in the decorations. The appointments, tall center, bedecked with ribbons and with ribbon streamers extending to each place, were used while spring flowers in crystal bowls were also used. Place cards and nut cups were of yellow and purple.

Mrs. C. S. Baxter and Mrs. Clarence Klinger, vocal soloists, gave a short musical with Miss Goldfine, piano. Mrs. Baxter sang "A Song of Spring" and Mrs. Klinger sang "Ah, Love but a Day" and "The Year's at the Spring." "Browning's Minor Poems" was the subject of Prof. Freeman's lecture.

Places were marked for the following members and their guests: Mrs. Ross E. Mullen, Mrs. E. C. Abrams, Mrs. W. B. Kirk, Professor Childs Harold Freeman, Mrs. C. S. Baxter, Mrs. Clarence Klinger, Miss Geraldine Evans, Mrs. Julia Simpson, Mrs. R. W. Parmenter, Mrs. Glen Wallace, Mrs. Harry Thomas, Mrs. C. A. Rowland, Mrs. T. K. Jacobs, Mrs. Donald Coon, Mrs. Elizabeth Mitchell, Mrs. Lester Pratt, Mrs. E. C. Howell, Mrs. Theodore Eysenbach, Mrs. Leroy Deane, Mrs. O. S. Mikesell, Mrs. J. B. Bernhart, Mrs. Oliver Steiner, Mrs. Benjamin Thomas.

Mrs. Wilona V. Porter, Mrs. Harold Fisher, Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. E. Warden, Mrs. E. P. Stafford, Mrs. R. B. Tolan, Mrs. E. C. Abrams, Mrs. M. L. Basinger, Mrs. Howard Fletcher, Mrs. M. M. Hyman, Mrs. Beecher Moke, Mrs. Frank Moke, Mrs. George Schermerhorn, Mrs. Charles Mouser, Mrs. Emmett Everett, Mrs. G. M. McCullough, Mrs. John Neville, Mrs. C. C. Mosher, Mrs. E. Owen, Mrs. D. Owen.

Mrs. Otis Lippincott, Mrs. W. B. Barth, Mrs. C. G. Gilliland, Mrs. W. G. Woodfield, Mrs. Phil M. Crow, Miss Gall and Miss Ruth Parmenter, Miss Mary Kirk, Miss Mary Elder, Miss Minette Fagan, Miss Pauline Hyman and Miss Grace Reynolds. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Harold Banta of Los Angeles, Mrs. H. E. Moore of Detroit and Mrs. E. J. Sinks of Columbus Grove.

The women of the Market-st. Presbyterian church will give a reception at the church Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, complimenting those who have been recently taken into the church membership. All members of the church and their friends have been invited to attend. An informal program will be given and refreshments will be served.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Since printing G. R. H.'s letter in this column, I have received many interesting letters regarding his case. At least, I think them interesting and know the other readers will. I hope G. R. H. will read them and remember that they were not written in a critical way, but merely as "friend to friend."

Dear Miss Smart:

I am nearly bursting with indignation over G. R. H.'s letter. I want to tell him something about the column. G. R. H.—I think this is going to be a serious blow to him. He is a dependent. G. R. H. is to keep your own opinions concerning girls? I rather believe you are, you say you can't live a clean life. Why? It's your own fault if you can't, surely not the girls. You ask if there are any real girls? Honestly, I don't understand you. What do you suppose your mother would do your sister, if you have one? Are they artificial? A real girl doesn't want to be considered "fast" and you know it, or you ought to.

Another thing, G. R. H., girls like to shock people and I think you must be easy to shock. The next time some girl says something scandalous, please remember it's suffering. We like to surprise folks, it's rather a novelty.

Please don't be alarmed at this frank diagnosis of your character. I only want to convince you that you are wrong.

DYNAMITE.

Dear Miss Smart:

In regard to G. R. H.'s letter which I read in Tuesday's Lima News, I have not been wondering myself whether or not there are any real boys and how real they would treat a real girl. (G. R. H.) wants to know what a real girl expects. She expects to be treated as a lady, as he would want his sister to be treated, go to church with her on Sunday night, to a movie occasionally, and to spend a little money on her, not all he makes.

ONE REAL GIRL.

Dear Miss Smart:

Can you tell me how old these people are? W. S. Hart, Lillian Gish, Thomas Meighan, Thomas Mix, Anna Neilson and Milton Sills.

How much should I weigh? I am 15 years old and am six feet tall.

H. B.

I am unable to find the correct age of "Bill" Hart. However, he is about 35 years of age; Lillian Gish is 23 years old; Thomas Meighan is 25 years of age; Anna G. Nilsson is 28 years of age; Thomas Mix is 30 and I am unable to find the correct age of Milton Sills.

That would depend upon your tall. It would be difficult for me to tell you should weigh about 150.

GOOD MANNERS

When a servant at a door says "Not at home" this phrase signifies that the lady of the house is not at home to visitors. It is not intended to mean that she is out of the house. It is the proper way of notifying callers that she is not receiving visitors.

Elinor Glyn's "Three Weeks" Opens To Capacity Crowds At The Lyric

One of the Thrilling Scenes In Three Weeks

Many Original Gowns Worn In "Three Weeks"

Gowns without style—or rather with an entirely original style of their own, were worn by Elinor Glyn in "Three Weeks," at the Lyric Theatre.

A score of beautiful and costly gowns were ordered for Miss Pringle to wear in the picture, but when they were being designed the question of style and time came up. "Three Weeks" was written fifteen years ago and it was decided that the styles of that day would look quite comic to the theatre-goer of today. Finally it was decided to design the gowns to fit the particular type of beauty of Miss Pringle rather than adhere to any one period in style.

SUSPECT IN ROBBERY AT DAYTON IS HELD

DAYTON — Emmett Smith, 25, arrested early this morning, is being held by the police on suspicion of having held up and robbed William Zimmerman, 50, manufacturer, and Miss Mabel Morner in an apartment house last night. Jewelry valued at $1,250 and $35 in cash was taken from Zimmerman, he says, and Miss Morner was relieved of $20.

Zimmerman says he was calling on Miss Morner in her apartment. She responded to a knock at the door about 8:30 o'clock. According to her story, a man pulled a mask over his face and drew a revolver when she opened the door. Zimmerman told detectives that he believes he was the victim of a "badger" game and accuses Miss Morner of being an accomplice of the robber.

Careless Shampooing Spoils The Hair
Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Multisified coconut oil shampoo, which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses off easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. You can get Multisified coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Adv.

HIS BROTHER'S WIFE

by RUDY AYRES
© MIA SERVICE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

The marriage of Dolly and Nigel Bretherton proves an unhappy one. When war is declared, Nigel is glad to enlist. He leaves Dolly under the care of Mary Varney. Nigel is killed and Dolly marries an old sweetheart, Robert Durham. Dolly and Robert sail for America, and word comes of the sinking of their ship.

When Nigel's brother, David, calls to see Nigel's widow, Mary is ashamed to tell him of Dolly's marriage. David mistakes Mary for his brother's wife and asks her to come to live at Red Grange with him and his aunt. David and his aunt welcome Mary when she comes to Red Grange. David asks Mary if she believes in ghosts and tells her that Red Grange is haunted.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Red Grange is haunted, do you mean?"

"Yes; we are quite proud of our ghost, aren't we, Aunt Florence? I haven't seen it myself, but a good many of our ancestors have, and each visitation is chronicled most carefully in an old book. I will show it to you tomorrow. You are not afraid of ghosts?"

Mary laughed.

"I don't believe in them, of course! Do you?"

He hesitated.

"I'm not sure—but I rather believe I do."

"David!" said Miss Varney reprovingly.

He looked across at her.

"Well, I believe I do; in our particular ghost, at any rate. They say she is a very charming person."

"A woman, then?" said Mary.

"Yes; a lady in gray. As I say, I've never seen her, but she is supposed to appear at stated times, and walk the corridors upstairs. I dare say you've noticed that most of them are oak-paneled?"

"Yes."

"Well, there is supposed to be a secret door in one panel leading to an old undiscovered passage—that's the story, anyway. Most old houses have some such story; I wonder Nigel didn't tell you. He and I used to spend days when we were youngsters, trying to find out where it was. I should think there's hardly an inch of the wall hasn't been tapped and tried to get into opening, but we never found anything, and I dare say it's only a story."

"Mary will be dreaming if you tell her any more," Miss Varney objected.

David looked at the girl.

"Will you? I'm sorry; I didn't think you'd be so impressionable."

"I'm not. I think it's awfully interesting. When did she last appear—this gray lady?"

David hesitated. He knit his brows.

"I can't quite remember, but it's some years ago—long before my time. The story runs that she is only seen when some disaster or disgrace is threatening the family. She's quite a kindly soul, evidently," he added laughing. "And means quite well."

They all laughed and the conversation was changed.

CHAPTER XXIII

The Family Skeleton

David went to his room to write letters after dinner, and Mary and Miss Varney sat together in the drawing-room.

"Doesn't Mr. Bretherton ever sit with us—with you, I mean?" Mary asked involuntarily.

Miss Varney looked up from her crochet.

"Oh, yes; sometimes, my dear! But he's not at all strong, you know; in fact, at one time we never thought he would live to grow up. He's much better now, but he has to be careful. I like him to rest as much as possible. But we shall see quite a lot of him, and you'll like him very much when you know him better."

"I like him now," said Mary impulsively.

Miss Varney looked pleased; she was never tired of listening to praise of her idol.

"He's a wonderful man—wonderful!" she said, with quiet enthusiasm. "He doesn't make many friends, and he doesn't make them easily; but once he likes a person, he'd do anything for him."

"I am sure he would."

"He's just like his grandfather in some respects," Miss Varney went on, with evident enjoyment. "He's the straightest man I know, but once you make an enemy of him—" She looked up at Mary with a sort of pride. "The Brethertons never forgive!" she said severely.

"I don't think that's very nice of them," said Mary, with a nervous little smile. "They might need forgiveness for something themselves one day."

Miss Varney unwound some more cotton from the ball on her lap.

"It's a family trait, my dear, I can't explain it in any other way. Of course, I know we are all taught to forgive our enemies, but not many of us do so, I am afraid. Just now David was speaking of the family ghost, as he calls it, but he didn't tell you about the last time it appeared, and why it is supposed to have appeared, did he?"

"No."

"It was in his grandfather's time. David's father was a young man then, and his brother Ralph—you've heard Nigel speak of his Uncle Ralph, of course?"

"No."

Miss Varney looked surprised.

"Haven't you? I wonder he didn't tell you about him. He was the black sheep of the family. He was older than David's father, and he got into a lot of trouble here at home and went off abroad. Nothing was heard of him for years, until one day news of his death was sent to his father. He'd died somewhere in America, at that apparently was the end of him, and everyone naturally looked upon David and Nigel's father as heir."

"I suppose it must have been about six months later," she went on, "that a woman arrived at the Red Grange. It was November. I wasn't here, of course, but I've heard the story told so often I almost seem to have been here and witnessed it. She had a child with her, a boy of two years, and she said she was Ralph Bretherton's wife, and that the boy was his son. Nobody had ever heard of his being married, but she persuaded his father into believing her. She had papers and certificates, and goodness alone knows what, and she told him a very plausible story of how she met him and what his life had been, and how he died."

"Well, to cut a long story short, she was received here as Ralph Bretherton's widow, and the child acknowledged as his son. A nice little fellow he was, I believe; and, judging from his portrait—there's one in the gallery—he was a very pretty boy, but not a bit like a Bretherton. He and his mother stayed here for about two months, living in luxury, before they were found out. David's grandfather took a great fancy to them, it appears, and thought nothing too good for them."

"Then one night the Gray Lady was seen; no fewer than three people saw her, and all on separate occasions. It was a warning, so everyone said, that some disaster was falling on the family. And sure enough it was, because the very next day someone sent an anonymous letter to the head of the house—David's grandfather—and warned him that the woman he was sheltering—his son's wife was an impostor. I don't remember the details, but it proved to be true enough. She had only known Ralph Bretherton very slightly, and the whole thing was a put-up scheme to get the money and estates for the boy."

CHAPTER XXIV

The Bretherton Character

Mary had listened breathlessly.

"And what happened to them?"

Miss Varney shook her head.

"This is the most dreadful part of the whole story, my dear, and one that none of the family are very proud of, for David's grandfather turned them out then and there, back and crop, into the road, and wouldn't allow anyone to raise a finger to help them. It was a dreadful night, so they say, snowing, and with a cutting wind blowing."

Miss Varney shivered a little at her own thoughts. She had told the story so many times that it had become most realistic to her.

"She put down her work and looked across at Mary."

"In the morning some of the villagers found them in a snowdrift by the roadside. The little boy was dead, and his mother—" she shook her head—"she died soon afterwards."

"How cruel—how wickedly cruel!" Mary's voice was angry and indignant. "Wasn't he punished? Can't a man be punished for murder? It was murder!" she repeated vehemently.

Miss Varney looked a little shocked.

"There was a terrible scandal, of course; but—well, when you are a rich and powerful man, my dear, you can hush things up, you know, and the whole truth never came out. But it showed that side of the Bretherton character—relentless, remorseless."

"And you mean—you mean that David would be like that?" asked Mary slowly.

"Oh, my dear, how can I tell? I only know that he is a Bretherton to the backbone."

Mary left her chair and walked over to the fire. She dropped on her knees, holding her hands to the warmth of its blaze. She was shivering a little.

"I suppose if anyone deceived him, then," she said in a hard voice, "that he would be quite capable of behaving in the way his grandfather did. Is that what you mean?"

Miss Varney looked distressed.

"I'm afraid I am giving you a wrong impression of him, Mary. It's so unlikely that anything ever will happen to rouse him sufficiently, in ordinary way he never gets upset at all. Why, even when we heard that Nigel had been killed, you would hardly have thought David cared, the way he took it."

Mary's face flamed.

"It seems that nobody loved him but me!" she said bitterly. Then, suddenly remorseful: "Oh, I didn't mean that! Please forgive me; I didn't mean that!"

Miss Varney took the hand she extended.

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

"It's rather hard," answered Ruth pathetically, "to tear all your ideals up by the roots and throw them out on life's highway to die. However, I'm not going to bother you with any of my troubles. I just wanted you to know, Jack, that your friend, Harry Ellington, was not worthy of you."

"I'm leaving on the midnight train for New York."

"Why don't you wait and go with Leslie?" asked Jack. "She's going tomorrow night."

"It will be impossible. I can only be in New York a day. I'm bringing back the things for Amy Barker's trousseau."

"What are you going to do, when you marry, with your business?" asked Jack unexpectedly.

Ruth blushed. "I haven't decided to marry yet."

"But course you will," said Jack with conviction. "Waiter Burke has waited a long while for you. He deserves some reward."

"Are you sure of that?" I put in. "I am much surer today than I was before Ruth's husband ran away. According to a man's code, Walter Burke has been absolutely true to Ruth."

"After his fashion," I murmured. "What did you say, Leslie?" asked Jack.

"Nothing of any importance," I answered.

Ruth arose, and we bade her goodnight.

"I'll see you when I return, dear. You can wire me at the Waldorf if you find you have forgotten anything that is necessary to that elaborate trousseau and I'll buy it for you."

"I've sometimes thought, Leslie," observed Jack, "that you'd make a good business woman. Of course when I married you I thought you were one of those girls that were like lilies of the field, but everything you have done since has proved your executive capacity."

Ruth glanced over to me and nodded her head. I knew that she wanted me to tell Jack that half of the lingerie business was mine, but I shook mine no. I was not ready to tell him yet.

With a gay "goodnight" she left us, and Jack, turning to me, said: "It's astonishing to see, Leslie."

how the status of women has changed in the last few years. It is very probable that if Harry and Ruth had been married 10 or 15 years ago, and he had run away with another woman, Ruth would have lived upon her friends and relatives and pitied herself until she received that letter which told you Harry tonight; and then she would have taken him back. "You have not only murdered my love, but you have crucified my faith. I do not need you as an economic support, consequently you have gone your way and I will not take you back!"

Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined.

An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend," Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa.

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I was very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 24-B, Atlantic, Ga. for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

HALLORAN SIGNS A HEAVY HITTING OUTFIELDER

LEFTY POORMAN HERE FOR SUNDAY'S OPENER

"Lefty" Poorman, hard hitting outfielder who played with Lima at the close of the 1923 season, has been signed by Manager Bernie Halloran and will play Sunday afternoon at the opening game at Murphy-st park with Angola.

After weeks of negotiations Manager Bernie Halloran received a letter Wednesday from Poorman who assured him that he would be here on time for the inaugural of the Ohio-Indiana league.

Poorman jumped Lima in the Three-Eye league to come here. His last year's record with Lima warranted his jump into into faster company and several teams in the Western league were looking for his services but Lima refused to let him go, claiming that he was too valuable to the team.

Poorman was disappointed with action of the Lima club management and jumped the league. He will play in Lima on Sundays and on other independent clubs during the week.

While a member of Lima Independent last year Poorman was one of the heaviest hitters on the club. In the exhibition game with Pittsburgh he poked one over the right field fence for a home run and in the game with New Bremen he collected two of the team's five hits on the delivery of Jones, the school boy hurling star.

Halloran will place Poorman in left field with Costello and Egan covering the other two outfield positions. The remainder of the lineup will be unchanged with Herrine as catcher; Mains in the box; Wise at short; Aykes at first; Dodd at second; Malloy at third.

Don Robb the Lima schoolboy star, who is in Detroit, pitched eight innings last week against a last year pro team in Detroit and allowed only two hits. His record last year leads Herrine to expect winning half from him while he wears a Lima uniform.

A discussion that has been heard over reported failure of the local management to give local stars a chance to make good on the team was quieted Wednesday by Halloran's announcement that he will give every Lima boy a chance to make good.

He advises them to report for duty at Murphy-st ball park and every one will be given an equal chance to demonstrate his fitness for the team, which Halloran says, will be the best that Lima has ever placed on the field for an entire season.

DELPHOS READY FOR OPENER

DELPHOS — Al Haysman, manager of the Delphos league team, is optimistic about the game scheduled with Ottawa on May 4, and after the announcement of the following lineup, he stated that they would run any team in the league a good race for first place. Guy Tilton will take his usual place in the box for the locals with Joe Wehler, Ft. Jennings, relief man for the mound. Controversy over the man to rife either position has cleared and Kramer, Ottoville, has that berth.

Patrick at first, Brandhoff at second, and Mank at third composed in infield which Haysman says will outplay some of the best.

The outfield consists of Dittler, Walt Remlinger, center, and Bonita in the right field. The contest with Ottawa will be played on the home diamonds at Clay-st, and a capacity crowd is sure to be present for much enthusiasm is manifested by every fan in this part of the country.

Haysman stated that the signing of the contracts would be completed the latter part of the week. The next game is scheduled with Angola on May 11, and will be played there.

Pros, Ams and Sich

SANITUSKY — The 1925 tournament of the Inter-city Bowling Association was awarded to Port Clinton by the executive committee yesterday over Marion, Tiffin and Delaware. F. S. Wenger, Port Clinton, was elected president and T. H. Berleman, Port Clinton, secretary-treasurer of the association.

NEW YORK — The opening today of the 20 day spring meet of the Metropolitan Jockey Club at the Jamaica track inaugurates 153 days of continuous racing, Sundays excepted, in New York state.

The feature of the first day is the Paumonok Handicap, a dash of six furlongs carrying $5,000 added money and considered a trial for the $50,000 Preakness to be run later at Pimlico.

Zev, whose victory in the Paumonok last year marked the beginning of a string of wins marred only by the failure in the Preakness and the defeat in the Latonia championship, tries Tuesday to take the event again, this time as a four year old.

CHICAGO — Johnny Layton, St. Louis contender for first place in the National Three-cushion Billiard Tourney here, defeated Angelo Kleckhefer, Chicago, in two games.

Tennis Hit A Hard Blow By Rule

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — After the "conditional acceptance" by the United States Lawn Tennis Association, of the resignation from the Davis cup and Olympic teams of Vincent Richards, who joined William T. Tilden in protest against the player-writer rule, a storm cloud arose in the west which tennis enthusiasts hoped would hasten a revision of the rules.

This cloud was in the form of news that Austria had taken the lead in organizing the strongest position possible to what will be a weakened American team if Tilden and Richards fail to play.

The Australian rules committee met a similar situation by ruling that players could win if they did not cable disabilities during the progress of play.

PIRATES-BULLDOGS PLAY — The Central Pirates and the Lima Bulldogs will play ball at Fannin Park diamond Saturday morning. Neither team has played a game this season. The pirates are made up from among the best Central players while the Bulldogs have been gathered together from the Noria End. Farrell, manager of the Pirates, states that Bayh and Stuyver will be the battery for his team while McNamara of the Bulldogs will have "Pablo" McNamara and "Shirley" Bowers in the points for the team.

300 Olympic Fans — Arrangements have been made to carry 300 fans across the Atlantic with the American Olympic team this summer.

St. Johns High Lost Game To Convoy

DELPHOS — St. John's high school journeyed to Convoy Tuesday afternoon and lost their first diamond contest of the season by a close score of 4-3.

The game was loosely played both in the battery department as well as the fielding, and according to "Yuck" Schmidt, captain, the team will show a great improvement by the time they are scheduled to meet St. John's crew of Lima.

Few hits were made by the locals and only one of merit may be credited to the foreign outfit, and that a homer, when Gussott, Convoy, hit a homer in the fifth inning.

Schmidt pitched after that and allowed few hits, but the opponents drew two runs in the last inning, clinching the victory.

Lineups and summary is as follows: Delphos—L. Elm, c; Shibley, ss; Yuck Smith, 1b; Ricker, rf; Hanf, cf; R. Elm, p; Mueller, 1b; Sheek, 2b and Matt, 3b. Convoy—Mollenkopf, 1b; Jones, 3b; Gussott, rf; Heriz, 2b; Paneske, cf; McEldred, cf; Reedhach, ss and Glessler, cf. Score by innings:

Delphos 200 000 001—3
Convoy 000 002 002—4

The next game is scheduled on the home diamonds is with Grover Hill. All games will be played on the Clay-st grounds. A change in the lineup for this game has been made by Captain Schmidt. They are: Shibley will take the box, Schmidt, ss; R. Elm at first and Mueller in the outfield.

AS A MATTER OF FACT

Being a Criticism of the Best and the Worst in the World of Professional and Amateur Sports

The chess match, international inport player can make a very good character and the most important out of his prowess at this game that has been played anywhere since of masters. It will not be amiss to 1904 has passed into history, and picture in a short way the two leaders have proven one thing definitely, that chess players of the day. It is a there is a great deal more interest in fact that practically every one of a thousand laymen generally than those taking part in this tournament was believed. There were from three were of commanding presence, with hundred to a thousand interested, strongly marked characteristics, but spectators that saw these chessmen two of them were alike in appearance of play. Chess playing in these, appearance, and still stranger none of days is far more of a profession than they played alike in theory, each has at any time since matches were held a different game. Individually they gun. It has been proven that an ex-are an interesting lot of men.

RAOUL CAPABLANCA THE CHAMPION

Foremost of all chess players is he is thereby alive to all surrounding. Jose Raoul Capablanca, of Havana, Cuba. If the spectator expected to see a bearded gnome on the throne of chessplayers there would be a huge disappointment, so far as his looks are concerned. If you did not know he was champion chess player, you might naturally pick him for a proper stock broker, or the proprietor of some good sized town. Perhaps the strangest part of it is that he is perfectly competent to take good care of any business he is quiring careful attention to detail. He is a graduate of Columbia university, a drink of water, if you did not know it, possess a good business education. He is energetic, persistent and progressive. He is still a young man, now in his thirty-fifth year, and looks even younger. He is a good natured sort of a fellow and wonderful gift of playing the most when conversing always jokes and laughs. He moves about quickly, and you cannot help but notice that he has played chess thruout the ages.

DR. LASKER THE MASTER

Lasker, the master, a metamorphosis of a typical master of the game. He is, all but the subtle genius, comparing these two greatest of all modern players. The contrast is striking. He is 20 years older, and he has a bearing suggestive of an great deal more serious. There is the last affection. He will tell you to win is to battle, and he is that he knows about all that is worth a born fighter. He is 55 years of age, and was the leading player of the tournament as well as the master, in stature he is short and to every one else is familiar to him, stocky; his hair is grizzled as is his mustache. He is an inveterate smoker, and is often blended in wreaths of smoke. He looks the part of a typical master of the game. He has a habit of holding his left hand in his hand and the nose impresses you as a sort of a chess god; he assumes an unnatural calmness, and he has a bearing suggestive of an great deal more serious. RICHARDS COMING INTO HIS OWN

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK—Vinnie Richards, the 20-year-old former Fordham tennis star, has developed his game to a degree where it seems that he is a most serious contender for the national championship.

In winning the national indoor championship for the third time recently, young Richards displayed such brilliance in defeating Frank Hunter in the final round that it appeared that the youngster had finally arrived at the point that his game had always promised.

Hunter is one of the very best players in the United States and is one of the most improved players in the last year. He went thru to the final round in the British championships at Wimbledon last year and was defeated only by Billy Johnston, the California star, who won the title.

Richards is sailing early in May to get ready for the British championship tournament and it is almost certain that he will win the title because he is to be the only American entry of established ability and there is no player in Europe who can compare with the boy on the form that he has been showing.

Mantel Alonso, the Spanish star and many of the other high ranking European players, probably will pass up the Wimbledon tournament in order to prepare themselves for the Olympic matches and the preliminary contests of the Davis Cup tournament. The Olympic matches are taken more seriously in Europe than they are in this country.

He is getting more settled now and he is playing the game like it really means something to him.

Richards is one of the writer-players against whom the United States Lawn Tennis Association directed its amateur pulling that a player, after Jan. 1, 1925, will not be allowed to write about tennis for substantial compensation.

Richards has maintained that he wanted to make a profession of newspaper work, but after the unofficial rulings of the executive committee of the association was made that the rule would not be waived in the case of Bill Tilden, it is certain that Richards will not be made an exception, because Tilden had a much stronger case.

'Twas A DAY OF REST FOR MOST LEAGUERS

Rain interfered with games all over the National and American circuits Wednesday. The resulting conditions had bad and good results, because thru idleness Cincinnati went ahead of Chicago in the National league standing, owing to the Cubs being beaten by Pittsburgh. There were no games in the American, consequently the pennant race was not changed. Detroit and the Yanks being tied for first place honors. After a day of rest the different teams will go in fighting harder than ever. Cincinnati begins a crucial series with the fighting Cubs. It is given out that Mays will experiment with his "cellar delivery" against them in the opening game. Mays has been pitching the most consistent ball of the entire pitching staff of the Reds and it is confidently expected that he will continue in good form.

Eddie Roush, who has been out of the lineup for over a week, will go back to his usual position. He suffered a strained back caused from swinging at a ball too hard over a week ago. He is expected to bolster up the batting strength of the Reds which has not been any too strong lately.

MARANVILLE STEALS HOME — Wednesday between the Cubs and Pirates with Morrison and Jacobs pitching. It went fourteen innings, when "Rabbit" Maranville ended it by stealing home with the winning run which gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory and evening the series. Aside from Maranville's trick, the feature of the game was the pitching of Elmer Jacobs. Seattle, rookie, who pitched marvelous ball, but showed just a shadow of the tall sticks when he stood in the box with the ball in his hand and let the "Rabbit" dive across the home plate for the winning run. It was a hard game for the Cubs to lose. But then someone had to win it.

The Giants should have easy pickings this Thursday when they open a three game series with the Braves. It would seem that the Giants over match the other eastern teams, and there cannot be much change in the standing until they come west, when it is certain that the going will be much rougher. In the interim the western teams, all fairly matched in defensive and offensive strength will have to fight it out to the extent of their playing strength, until they get a little ease picking, which, however, will not be for some time. St. Louis opens at Pittsburgh, for three games and, this should prove an interesting series.

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — "Rabbit" Maranville stole home in the 14th inning with the run which gave Pittsburgh a 2-1 victory today over Chicago and an even break in the series, while pitcher Elmer Jacobs, Seattle, rookie, stood on the mound with the ball in his hand, apparently not knowing what to do. Two men were out when Maranville hit to right field. Heathcote turned a somersault in attempting to catch the ball, and Maranville reached third as the ball rolled to the fence. Schmidt was purposely passed, an advice Morrison was at bat, with two strikes on him, Maranville darted home with the deciding run.

Barnard's double and Grimm's single gave the visitors the first run and Chicago tied the count on Grimm's double and Heathcote's single. The score: Pitts, 010 000 000 001—2 11 0. Chi., 000 001 000 000 00—1 7 1. Morrison and Schmidt; Jacobs and O'Fallon.

BOSTON — Milton Stock joined the Brooklyn club and played third base today. His single in the eleventh, after Johnson's single and Wheat's double, scored the two runs which gave his team a 6-4 win over Boston. The score: Brooklyn 200 000 200 02—6 12 1. Boston 010 020 000 00—4 8 2. Vance and Deberry; Stryker and O'Neill.

Racing Moves To Pimlico Wednesday

PIMLICO RACE TRACK, BALTIMORE—(Associated Press)—The spring racing season at Old Hilltop opens today with the $6,300 Jennings Handicap at six furlongs the feature of the initial card. The race has attracted an exceedingly clever lot of sprinters altho the field of 23 entries probably will be cut considerably before post time in view of the heavy track resulting from yesterday's rains.

NAUTICAL WON $5,000 STAKE — HAYRE DE GRACE, Md. — Nautical won the Chesapeake Stakes $5,000 added for three year colts and fillies here Wednesday. Modest was second and Houghsee third. Time for the mile and one sixteenth was 1:16 4-5.

Senate Norris and Senator Ko also ran. A two dollar mutuels paid the winner $7.80; $4.20 and out; second colt turned a somersault in attempting to catch the ball, and Maranville reached third as the ball rolled to the fence. Schmidt was purposely passed, an advice Morrison was at bat, with two strikes on him, Maranville darted home with the deciding run.

Barnard's double and Grimm's single gave the visitors the first run and Chicago tied the count on Grimm's double and Heathcote's single. The score: Pitts, 010 000 000 001—2 11 0. Chi., 000 001 000 000 00—1 7 1. Morrison and Schmidt; Jacobs and O'Fallon.

MUTT & JEFF—AND IT WAS SUCH A BEAUTIFUL STATUE—

—BY BUD FISHER

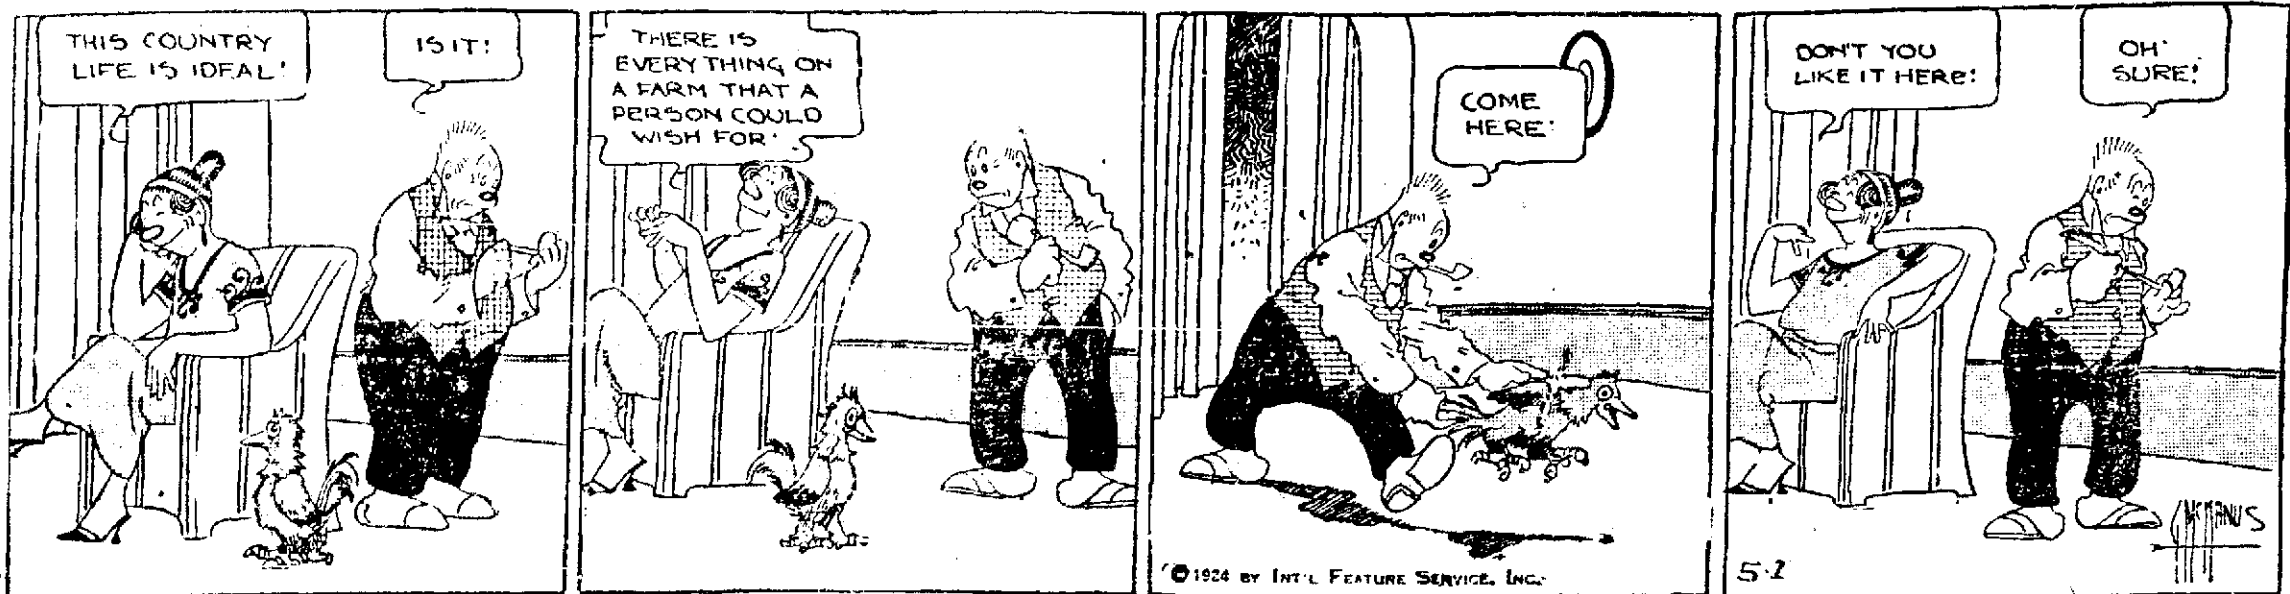

SICK WOMAN MADE HAPPY

Entirely Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mart, Texas—“I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build me up as I was all run-down, nervous and sick. I asked and hurt all over so that I was often compelled to go to bed, and I had to have most of my work done. No medicine seemed to help me until one of my neighbors who was taking the Vegetable Compound insisted upon trying a bottle of it. The medicine helped me from the first, and the best of all is that I can even sew again without that awful, nervous feeling I was used to having. And I used to take sleeping pills, with such a blue feeling that I cannot explain. Now all that has left me is a feeling so cheerful, and I have gained in weight, sleep well and eat hearty. Oh! I wish I had words to express what this medicine has done for me! I am a housekeeper and do everything from the sewing to the washing now and it doesn't hurt me. You may use my letter in any way you wish. I will be glad to help any suffering woman to the road of health and happiness.” Mrs. E. F. BRANNON, 404 Travis Ave., Mart, Texas.

Sent Free to Prove This

Anyone ruptured, man, woman or child, should write at once to W. S. Rice, 1106C Main St., Adams, N. Y., for a free trial of his wonderful stimulating application. Just put it on the rupture and the muscles begin to tighten; they begin to hold together so that the opening closes naturally and the need of a support or truss or appliance is then done away with. Don't neglect to send for this free trial. Even if your rupture doesn't bother you what is the use of wearing supports all your life? Why suffer this nuisance? Why run the risk of gangrene and such dangers from a small and innocent little rupture, the kind that has thrown thousands on the operating table? A host of men and women are daily running such risk just because their ruptures do not hurt or prevent them from getting around. Write at once for this free trial, as it is certainly a wonderful thing and has aided in the cure of ruptures that were as big as a man's two fists. Try and write at once, using the coupon below.

FREE-to Test!

Let us prove that here is a far more efficient, harmless and pleasant relief than the usual cathartics, laxatives, pills, salts, and oils for the Bowels, or than soda and the ordinary "indigestion remedies" for Sour, Acid Stomach.

- Constipation
- Biliousness
- Sick Headache
- Sour Stomach
- Flatulence
- Gases
- Heartburn

For fifty years "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it has an advantage over the usual laxatives and cathartics in being harmless, almost tasteless, mild in operation and not causing nausea, griping or the slightest inconvenience; also because it has an advantage over the usual "stomach remedies" in that it is a markedly efficient antacid, neutralizing almost three times as much acid as a saturated solution of Bicarbonate of Soda and almost fifty times as much as Lime Water. Besides, it is laxative, and inasmuch as constipation is frequently the cause of sour, acid stomach, its correction usually gives prompt relief.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

25 and 50 cent bottles. All Drugstores. Test It Free—Write to The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., No. 80 Varick St., New York, and receive a free trial bottle.
